I had the amazing opportunity to visit Israel several times while producing Reflections on Psalm 23 for People with Cancer (see page 42) with my Dad, Ken Curtis. We worked with both Israelis and Palestinians on a film crew. Our cinematographer was a Christian Palestinian Arab Israeli citizen. It took me a while to get my head wrapped around this. Both Palestinian and Israeli crewmembers were eager to explain to us their perspectives on ongoing tensions. I quickly came to understand that this situation is extremely complex and is a long family feud that extends back to Isaac and Ishmael in Genesis.

We mourn with the Israeli people for the horrible atrocities committed by Hamas. We mourn with the Palestinians who want nothing to do with Hamas, who have suffered much trauma and loss of life. I was surprised to hear from my daughter, a pastor at a local church, about her conversation with the local rabbi. The rabbi explained that their congregation has had a significant amount of increase of fear since the October 7 atrocities. The synagogue that the rabbi leads has hired armed guards for every time they have a service out of the concern for safety. As someone who's always been fascinated by World War II, it's astonishing to me to hear that there are some people who do not believe the Holocaust ever happened. We at Vision Video/Redeem TV agree with those who say, "never again." We offer a wide selection of documentaries and dramas that document this horrific history.

We are currently partnering with our friends at Global StoryFilms to tell the story of Hanna Zack Miley. As a young girl, Miley was on one of the last trains out of Cologne, Germany, in July of 1939. These trains, known as the Kindertransport, took children to safety in the United Kingdom, and soon afterwards her parents were sent to Nazi concentration camps. When we release this film in late 2024, you'll be able to hear from Hanna how the only thing that brought her peace was learning to forgive those who have done so much evil to her and her family. Her story demonstrates the truth that Jesus teaches—the only way to overcome evil is with love.
