

Listening Guide for

The Searching Generation:
The Spiritual Life of Twenty-Somethings

For a free catalog of our videos contact:

Gateway Films/Vision Video

P.O. Box 540, Worcester, PA 19490

Phone: 1-800-523-0226 • Fax: 610-584-6643

E-Mail: info@visionvideo.com • Web: www.visionvideo.com

Listening Guide for Viewing
The Searching Generation: Spiritual Life of Twenty Somethings

Fill in the blanks below to complete statements from the film. These will help trigger your memory during the discussion segment.

American woman: “Spirituality should play a _____, but it _____.”

Erwin McManus: “Twenty year olds don’t want to _____.”

David Kinnamon: “They use technology _____. It changes the pace of _____.”

Lorene Wales: “Their communication is _____ and _____.”

Kinnamon: “_____ out of _____ twenty-somethings tell us _____ is important in their lives. _____ percent _____ in a typical _____.”

Delilah, NYC: “I believe there’s a _____, but I don’t follow _____.”

Gary Morgan, Nashville: “We’ve hindered twenty-somethings from asking a lot of _____ and from having a lot of _____.”

Gary Detweiler: “We have been _____. We have been people who defined ourselves by what we are _____ rather than what we are _____.”

Research finding: Gen-Xers and Millennials are the _____ group to _____ church.

James Langteaux: “We built relationships with people who hated _____ but had no idea that the people they were loving were _____ in _____.”

Kinnamon: Seven factors influencing people’s lives: _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____ and _____.

Detweiler: “We have to figure out how to reclaim an _____ - _____ faith.”

McManus: “What is ministry but unleashing _____ through the power of the _____.”

Kinnamon: “There are some really cool opportunities for _____ with young people because of the way they are making their _____.”

Your personal reflection: “How did this film make you feel about your church’s potential for reaching young people more effectively? _____
_____”