

Janet Bush is currently employed at the Christian Recovery Center in Minneapolis, MN. The agency specializes in counseling children and adult survivors of sexual abuse. Janet is the program director of Becomers, a therapy group offering support to women dealing with the effects of childhood sexual abuse.

Paul Meier is a nationally recognized psychiatrist, as well as Co-Founder and Medical Director of Meier Clinics. Dr. Meier is acknowledged as a pioneer in the integration of the physical aspects of humans with the psychological and spiritual dimensions. He taught pastoral counseling at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, IL, and at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Jennifer Cisney is Director of Professional Relations for the American Association of Christian Counselors. She received her Master's degree in counseling from Wake Forest University and has worked in the field of Christian counseling since 1994. Jennifer specializes in working with issues of grief, crisis, and trauma.

Pam Micca is a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Clinical Director at Remuda Ranch, a nationally recognized treatment center for eating disorders located in Arizona.

Tim Clinton is president of the 50,000-member AACCC and is Professor of Counseling and Executive Director of the Liberty University Center for Counseling and Family Studies. He is a popular speaker and author of several best-selling books on grief, crisis, and trauma.

Margaret Nagib is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist affiliated with the Meier Clinics in Chicago. She received her doctorate from Wheaton College, where her studies focused on the integration of psychology and Christianity. Margaret has been in practice with Meier Clinics since 1998 and is the director of the Christian counseling track at Timberline Knolls, a residential treatment facility for girls and women in a southern suburb of Chicago.

Kimberly Dennis is the Associate Medical Director at Timberline Knolls. She also has a private practice with Working Sobriety Chicago, a group of practitioners offering intensive outpatient treatment for families and adolescents with addictions and compulsive behaviors.

Francis Pizzarelli is the Founder and Executive Director of Hope House Ministries and has worked with troubled teenagers for many years. He has taught for the past 23 years at both St. Joseph's College as a senior instructor in the Humanities Dept. and at Suffolk County College as an Assistant Professor of Sociology.

Jim DeMar is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who provides counseling and intervention services to Special Education students and families. He is a board member of the Association of Christian Therapists and Restoring the Heart Ministries. Jim facilitates training and mentoring groups in Boundaries and Theophostic Prayer Ministry.

Paul Singh is a Licensed Psychologist who specializes in biblical counseling as a marriage therapist. Singh has been a guest lecturer for the nationwide "Meet the Expert" series at the Mayo Clinic and is also an adjunct professor in Biblical Counseling at Northwestern College.

Jeffrey DeSarbo is a Board Certified Psychiatrist specializing in the treatment of eating disorders. He is the Director of Psychiatric Services for Eating Disorder Medical Associates (NY) and is a national presenter on the topics of eating disorders, sexuality and general psychiatry.

Ed Smith is the developer of the Theophostic Ministry process. He holds a Master's degree in education from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, TX, and a Doctorate of Ministry from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, MO.

John Eldredge is the founder and director of Ransomed Heart™ Ministries in Colorado Springs, CO, a fellowship devoted to helping people recover and live from their hearts. John also is the author of numerous books.

David Stoop is a Clinical Psychologist and Founder and Director of the Center for Family Therapy in Newport Beach, CA. David is a member of the AACCC Executive Board.

Don Frank is a gifted communicator and mentor who enjoys encouraging husbands and fathers to be the best they can be. He is currently a public school administrator and has a Master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific University. Don has been an educator and a high school and college basketball coach for more than 35 years.

Jeannette Vought is the Founder and Executive Director of Christian Recovery Counseling and has more than 25 years of experience in the field of recovery from physical, emotional, and sexual abuse. She is a Licensed Psychologist, Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker, and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist.

Jan Frank is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in private practice in California. Jan has been a conference speaker both nationally and internationally. She has appeared on The 700 Club, 100 Huntley Street (Canada), Moody Radio, and Today's Family. Jan has authored four books. She is an expert in the area of sexual abuse recovery and helping those who have grown up in dysfunctional families.

Christopher West is a research fellow and faculty member at the Theology of the Body Institute. He is one of the most sought-after speakers in the Church today, having delivered more than 1,000 public lectures in numerous countries and over 150 American cities. All three of his books have become Catholic best-sellers.

Diane Langberg is a psychologist in private practice in suburban Philadelphia. In addition to her counseling, she is engaged in speaking and lecturing on various topics related to marriage, Christian living, and the realities of life in the ministry. She is a regular columnist for Partnership magazine.

Julie Woodley is the Founder and Director of Restoring the Heart Ministries, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping those who have suffered trauma and abuse. She has an M.A. in Mental Health and is a counselor practicing in New York. Julie is a certified trauma counselor and received her ordination in 1997. She has written and co-authored a number of books.

Jason Li is a Professor of Psychology at Bethel University where he has served as the clinical director and the program director. His research interests include integration issues in psychology and theology, family of origin work, and multicultural issues. He is also a Licensed Clinical Psychologist.