Mister Scrooge to See You!

The once mean and miserly Ebenezer Scrooge was forever changed by his ghostly Christmas Eve encounter. Now one year later, Scrooge receives another posthumous visit from his old business partner. It seems Jacob Marley is not yet finished with Mister Scrooge! Sent on a journey 170 years into the future, Scrooge encounters a world even colder and greedier than his own, a world that includes a young cutthroat businessman named Timothy Cratchet VI. Will Scrooge be able to turn Cratchet from his selfish ways and teach him the true meaning of Christmas? Mister Scrooge to See You is a light-hearted and entertaining follow-up to Dicken's classic tale. Kids and parents will be delighted by this humorous story which points to the ultimate gift of Christmas. This fun family video stars David Ruprecht, known for his many stage and television roles. 115 minutes. (EST).

Charting Christmas

Filmed on location in the Holy Land and the United Kingdom, this documentary traces the origins of Christmas traditions, beginning with the biblical prophecies concerning the Messiah and the New Testament accounts of His birth. See how Christmas celebrations evolved through the ages and were influenced by notable figures and entities including Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Boniface, Charles Dickens, and even the Coca-Cola Corporation. Included are interviews with biblical scholars and historians, such as author and Bible teacher Lance Lambert and Canon Jim Rosenthal, Founder of the St. Nicholas Society. Their commentaries illuminate the origins of Christmas and tell us why we celebrate Christmas as we do today. 41 minutes.

For the Glory

After the death of his older brother, Kurt tries to make everyone happy. But faced with the rejection of his perfectionist father, his mother's crippling alcoholism, and his own failure to make it as a college basketball player, Kurt is driven to an emotional and spiritual crossroad. Then at the bidding of an insistent friend, Kurt reluctantly tries out for his fraternity's soccer team, even though he had never played competitive soccer in his life! To everyone's surprise, he becomes an overnight sensation. Buoyed by his girlfriend, Sherry (Chelsie Casagrande), and other friends, Kurt trains hard all summer for the Division 1 team. In time his skill as a goalkeeper leads him all the way to the North American Soccer League. For the Glory shows how God's intervention turns failure into triumph in ways we can't begin to imagine. Received five stars from the Dove Foundation—their highest rating! 106 minutes (EST).

The Watchers: Revelation

Who are the Watchers? Is a race of benign extraterrestrials secretly influencing the world's governments? Are these creatures really ancient aliens sent to protect humanity from self-destruction, or are they evil beings set on deception as the world approaches its final days?

An inexplicable archeological find leads Dr. Peter Kenner to conclude that we are not alone, aliens have visited the Earth in the distant past and have now returned. Struggling to reconcile the evidence with his once held religious views, Peter turns to his uncle, Josh Sanders, a retired scientist and a man of strong Christian faith. Meanwhile, Sarah Pennington seeks protection for her young daughter, Kara, believing the extraterrestrials are bent on abducting the gifted nine-year-old as they did Sarah's husband three years earlier. When the four are brought together by Ethan, a mysterious stranger, Peter and Sarah wrestle with their own beliefs as Josh seeks to convince them of the truth. It becomes clear that Kara has a very special gift—one that can expose the true nature of the extraterrestrials. The Watchers is a provocative church-produced film directed by Tom Dallis. 90 minutes (EST).

For Love's Sake

No Family is Beyond Hope

Days before Christmas 1978, Peter Walker, a young English lay preacher, is killed in a motorcycle accident. His wife Mary, already emotionally fragile, falls into the depths of suicidal depression. As a result, she loses custody of her two young boys, Paul and James. The boys are further traumatized as they are taken under the care of the county authorities and placed in a series of children's homes and in a temporary foster placement with their grandparents. While James clings desperately to his Christian faith and the hope of being reunited with his mother, Paul rebels by fighting and committing petty crimes. Through the intervention of her church community, a dedicated social worker, and a caring Christian therapist (played by Bruce Marchiano), Mary uncovers a flicker of faith still burning beneath the darkness. As she heals emotionally, hope returns, along with the strength to fight a skeptical bureaucracy for custody of her children. 96 minutes plus bonus features and PDF study guide (EST).

About Miracles Available October, 2013

NEW!

About Miracles features four dramatic, true stories about modern day miracles. Told by the actual people involved and featuring gripping reenactments, these stories will amaze you as they strengthen your faith.

A man is robbed, then shot in the head at point-blank range and left for dead. A woman hears a voice telling her to go to the ER even though she has no physical symptoms. A student has just one week to raise thousands of dollars for a mission trip. A baby is injured in a car accident and gradually loses his sight while his parents pray for healing.

Life is dangerous. Complicated. Mysterious. In an age where God is no longer the central focus, the modern mind often prefers scientific arguments to explain life experiences. About Miracles offers the facts surrounding these true stories and concludes that sometimes...the only logical explanation is God. 55 minutes.

With God on Our Side

NEW!

With God on Our Side takes a hard look at the theology and politics of Christian Zionism, which teaches that because the Jews are God's chosen people, Israeli government policies should not be questioned, even when these policies are unjust. Critics of Christian Zionism argue that this flawed ideology has led to ethnic discrimination and great suffering among the Palestinian people, including thousands of Palestinian Christians.

Is there a Biblical alternative for Christians who love and support the people of Israel? A way that doesn't favor one people group over another but instead promotes peace, security, and reconciliation for both Jews and Palestinians? 82 minutes.

The Bible on Trial

NEW!

Set in a courtroom, The Bible On Trial: Beyond a Reasonable Doubt examines the contributions of biblical analysis, ancient historical voices, archaeology, and the testimony of first-century followers of Jesus Christ in its quest to determine the reliability and accuracy of the Bible's message.

In this Men's NetWork Bible study, attorney Craig Parton leads the investigation. Along the way, Bible scholars Dr. Paul Maier, Dr. Randall Price, Dr. Jeff Kloha, and Joel Lampe contribute insights and analysis from their respective fields on the crucial issue of the Bible as a trustworthy work in which to place our faith. The authenticity of the Bible is evaluated according to the "Bibliographical," "Internal Evidence" and "External Evidence" tests. What is your verdict? Includes 45-minute version and a 4-part Bible study version with a PDF study guide.

Corrie ten Boom: A Faith Undefeated Available November, 2013

NEW!

When Nazi forces invaded Holland in 1940 and began rounding up Jews, Corrie ten Boom, her sister, Betsie, and their elderly father risked their lives to save as many as possible. A hidden room was secretly built in their home where the oppressed Jews took refuge until a Gestapo raid put an end to their operation. For their "crimes," Corrie and Betsie were sent to the notorious concentration camp at Ravensbruck where they suffered relentless cruelty. Struggling to reconcile God's goodness with the terrible realities of the camp, the sisters clung desperately to their Christian faith. Betsie died in the camp, but Corrie was miraculously released due to a clerical error. She spent the rest of her days caring for other death camp survivors and sharing her story with the world. Corrie's 1971 best-selling book, The Hiding Place, provides her account of persevering faith and forgiveness in the face of terrible evil. Featuring an interview with Pam Rosewell Moore, Corrie's longtime assistant, and scenes filmed in the ten Boom house in Holland where the actual events took place, Corrie ten Boom, a Faith Undefeated recounts this unforgettable story for a new generation. 55 minutes (EST, S, SST).

Life in the Face of Death NEW!

For many years, Ed Dobson served as a pastor, offering his congregation hope in times of discouragement, pain, and loss. However, when he was diagnosed with ALS and told that he only had two to five years to live, he was devastated. Suddenly, the reality of death left him in need of the support and care that he had for so long given to others. Initially, he withdrew from people, but then he moved on to begin an uncommon journey toward a new quality of life and purpose. It's been years since that diagnosis and the beginning of his journey. In this five-part DVD, Dobson reveals his unfolding story. He says, "It's not about how long I have left. It's about how I spend the time I do have left." 93 minutes total.

Evil is real and ever present in a world where wars, disasters, and personal pain persist. In the midst of it all, the response is often the same. Where is God? Why would He let this happen? Although no one has all the answers, you can find hope and encouragement to help you think through these questions about evil and why God allows it in the Bible study The Problem of Evil.

In this six-lesson interactive study, author and speaker Os Guinness, a graduate of the University of London and Oxford, introduces the problem of evil in an engaging and respectful way. You'll hear a compelling case that leads to faith and courage as he compares and contrasts the issue from Eastern, secular, and biblical perspectives, examines the difference between evil and suffering, and provides seven steps to help you confront the reality of evil.

Gain a deeper understanding of what evil truly is, and discover why you can trust God to sustain you when bad things happen. 47 minutes. Includes 68-page leader's guide.

Augustine:

A Voice for All Generations

Augustine of Hippo (354-430) is one of the greatest theologians of the Christian Church. His works, including The City of God, On the Trinity, and Confessions, have had an inestimable impact on the Church and, by extension, on Western Civilization at large. Yet, where did such faith begin?

After rejecting his mother's Christianity as simplistic and restraining, Augustine embarked on a path towards self-gratification, marked by the pursuit of money, political power, and sexual pleasure. Hosted by Augustine expert Mike Aquilina and shot on location in Rome and Milan, this documentary explores the conversion story of one of the most significant figures in church history. Travel back to the fourth century and discover why Augustine has become a "Voice for All Generations." 55 minutes. (EST, S, SST).

Restless Heart

It is A.D. The Roman Empire is beginning to crumble. The Vandals and other marauding tribes spill through the gaps in Roman defenses. And one of the greatest saints of the Christian church stands between his flock and the barbarian invaders. As he attempts to negotiate between the proud Roman authorities and the implacable Vandal king, Bishop Augustine recalls his own life before Christianity.

In this stirring and epic new film on the life of St. Augustine of Hippo, follow the great saint as he rises from his reckless days as a youth to his accomplishments as a renowned but dissolute orator. Though worldly success and riches come his way, including a position in the imperial court of Milan, satisfaction and peace elude him. It takes a confrontation with the Christian bishop Ambrose and the countless prayers offered by his patient mother, Monica, to break through his intellectual pride. Starring Alessandro Preziosi, Monica Guerritore, Johannes Bandrup, and Franco Nero. John Wesley:

The Man and His Mission

Journey throughout England and follow the story of one of the most influential people who ever lived. From a childhood upbringing in the small town of Epworth in the north of England to a scholarly education at Oxford University, and from humble beginnings in Bristol to an influential base in London, John Wesley's impact is still felt, though not completely recognized, today. From an early age, John Wesley had a calling on this life to serve. Throughout every phase of his life, Wesley was a man of influence and he was recognized as a natural leader. His dramatic rediscovery of the biblical message of God's grace offered freely to all led him outside the walls of the church to preach to the masses. Discover the makings of a man who traveled the length and breadth of England more than any other, who was able to inspire the poor, the middle class, and the leaders of his day, and who is widely regarded as one of the most persuasive figures in world history. The work of John Wesley spread throughout the world and today, hundreds of years after his death, still influences social justice, politics, and religion around the world. This beautifully produced documentary, hosted by Wesley expert Keith Garner and shot at key locations, provides a comprehensive view of John Wesley's life and legacy. 55 minutes.

Wrestling with God

An award-winning, dramatic exploration of the profound personal challenges and public pressures that helped shape one of the most celebrated public figures in 19th Century American religious and political circles. Alexander Campbell immigrated to America as a young man, disillusioned by the hypocrisy of the clerical hierarchy in the Old World. Here he faced a new country riddled with factious religious zealots of every description, all claiming their own brands of religion as the only acceptable path to righteousness. Campbell fought to pare away layers of man-made doctrine and rediscover God's truth at its source: Holy Scripture and the elegant simplicity of Christ's teachings. Wrestling with God opens doors to new spiritual journeys. Its compelling message is delivered by asking questions rather than imposing answers. Wrestling with God transcends denominational barriers and cuts to the core of faith. 72 minutes. In English with Arabic open captions (Pt, EST, SST).

Christmas Oranges

NEW!

Rose was left at Greenwood's Orphanage, where Mrs. Hartley (Nancy Stafford) and the children under her care became the child's family. When tragedy strikes, Rose (Bailee Johnson) is abruptly shipped to Irongates—a place that seems as cold and cruel as her previous home was kind. The strict headmaster, Mr. Crampton (Edward Hermann), is especially hard on Rose. But Christmas is a time of miracles. Share a slice of Christmas sweetened with friendship in this poignant Christmas story based on a classic holiday tale. Dove Family approved for all ages. 100 minutes.

What God Hath Wrought

In the late 1960's, Calvary Chapel of Costa Mesa, California, was at the epicenter of one of the greatest spiritual revivals in American history. That revival is known today as the "Jesus Movement." Pastor Chuck Smith and his wife, Kay, opened their hearts and welcomed members of the hippie counter-culture into their (then) small church. The result was the conversion of thousands of young people and the beginning of widespread changes in the church that continue to impact us today. This documentary tells the story of Calvary Chapel and the Jesus Movement and traces their impact on Christianity including the birth of contemporary Christian music and contemporary worship practices. 105 minutes.

African Christianity Rising

NEW!

At one time people referred to the "Christian West" and "Heathen Africa," but that is no more. What does Christianity's explosive growth in Africa mean for the church and for the world? For over a decade, award-winning documentary filmmaker James Ault has explored these questions by filming stories in Ghana and Zimbabwe in a range of churches found in sub-Saharan Africa today. Through personal dramas of ordinary believers, these films bring you into the local cultures giving shape to Christian growth in Africa. Commentary from leading thinkers on the subject sheds light on its distinct features—on healing, demonic possession, and vibrant bodily worship, for instance—and on the opportunities and challenges it poses for the church worldwide. Book by Book: Revelation

The book of Revelation takes us to the very heart of the universe itself where we find the Lord Jesus Christ sharing the throne with His Father, surrounded by the Holy Spirit. At the center of reality, behind all the apparent confusion and chaos of this passing age, the Living God rules through Jesus, the Lamb and Lion of God. Jesus and His Bride, the Church, are seated in heaven far above all the powers of this age, as we wait for that day of judgment and new creation. This episode of the Book by Book series covers the 22 chapters of Revelation in ten 15-min. segments.

Babylon Past, Present, and Future

Bible history and prophecy depict Babylon as a social, economic, and religious power. The Bible portrays Babylon as a woman riding a seven-headed, 10-horned beast described as "Mystery, Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth" (Revelation 17:5). Babylon has fascinated countless people over the centuries. But its story is an important one for Christians living today. Discover the common thread that weaves Babylon past and future with Babylon present. Explore Babylon—one of the most intriguing mysteries of the Bible. 80 minutes (EST).

The Bible

Mightier Than the Sword

Throughout history emperors and dictators, kings and queens, regimes and religions have done their best to destroy it—and failed. For centuries the rich and powerful kept their people ignorant of its contents, fearful of the revolution that would take place if they ever learned what was in it. One day they did, and the world was changed forever.

For centuries the best-selling book in history has been either loved or hated, feared or treasured, read or ignored. Its influence on the world has been incalculable. Its influence on ordinary people, life transforming. So what about this book, this collection of ancient writings we know today as the Bible? Who wrote it? Where did it come from? What is its message? Filmed in Germany, Israel, and England, and using drama, documentary, and powerful testimony, this program explains why the Bible is Mightier than the Sword. 30 minutes (EST).

Apostle Peter and the Last Supper

The year is A.D. 67. Two Roman jailers take custody of a famous outlaw — the leader of a "dangerous sect" believed to undermine the authority of Caesar. The outlaw's name is Simon Peter of Galilee, a disciple and friend of Jesus, the Galilean "cult leader" who started all the trouble. Now a frail and elderly man, Peter prepares to face execution after a lifetime of teaching the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. While he awaits death, Peter recounts his life as a simple, hard-headed fisherman, who was transformed into one of the greatest leaders of the Christian faith. Starring Robert Loggia as Peter and Bruce Marchiano as Jesus. Dove approved for ages 12 and up. 88 minutes.

The Early Church

From Christ to Constantine: The Trial and Testimony of the Early Church 🕯️

First released in 1990, this series continues to be a small group and curriculum favorite. The first three centuries were decisive for Christianity. The very existence of the church was threatened by powerful opponents who wanted to destroy it. These programs, shot on location, use dramatic re-creations to bring you close to the lives of the early believers. A great attendance builder, this series has proven to be especially popular for small groups, Bible studies, and Sunday school. The support material is designed so that lay people can lead a group effectively and comfortably in six or twelve sessions.

The complete curriculum kit on DVD includes six half-hour programs with printed leader's guide and reproducible student worksheets. The DVD is also available with PDFs of the leader's guide, student worksheets, and scripts. SG 📄 DOCU-DRAMA

DVD with PDFs - #500823D, $29.99

DVD with printed guides (shown) - #97929D, $39.99

Highlights from the six programs:

1. Foundations How did it all begin, and what happened to the twelve apostles?
2. Spread The Word was for all. How did they bring their message to the world?
3. Accusations Believers were subject to many charges, some outrageously false and others true. How did they answer them?
4. Persecutions The mightiest empire in history outlawed and persecuted the believers. What happened and why?
5. Testimony A close-up look at heroes who would pay with their lives rather than deny their faith.
6. Transition Constantine granted the church legality and favor. Was this a bane or blessing? Why did the church succeed?

The Apostles' Creed

This series traces the origin of the Apostles' Creed, placing it in its historical context. It examines each phrase, emphasizing its relevance and application to our lives today. Producer-director for the series is T.N. Mohan, who has achieved the remarkable feat of translating historical theology into a briskly-paced, interesting experience. These programs demonstrate the timeless power and importance of the Creed and feature an international and interdenominational cast of notable theologians, including Dr. Timothy George, Dr. N.T. Wright, Dr. Robert Mulholland, Dr. Alistair McGrath, Dr. Martin Marty, and more. This is an outstanding resource for Sunday school or small groups. A free PDF guide is available on our website. Available in 9 1/2-hour full-length version or 2-hour abridged version (EST).

With God on Our Side

NEW!

With God On Our Side takes a hard look at the theology and politics of Christian Zionism, which teaches that because the Jews are God's chosen people, Israeli government policies should not be questioned, even when these policies are unjust. Critics of Christian Zionism argue that this flawed ideology has led to ethnic discrimination and great suffering among the Palestinian people, including thousands of Palestinian Christians.

Is there a Biblical alternative for Christians who love and support the people of Israel? A way that doesn't favor one people group over another but instead promotes peace, security, and reconciliation for both Jews and Palestinians? 82 minutes.

Revivals

The Azusa Street Story

In 1906, William Seymour, a black pastor from Louisiana, traveled from Houston to Los Angeles only to be locked out of the white church that sent for him. Seymour turned to prayer, and God's answer was The Azusa Street Revival. This documentary also looks at the mystery and controversy surrounding some of the beliefs of the Charismatic Movement.

Outpouring of the Holy Spirit

A small group of believers earnestly prayed for Revival in England at the beginning of the twentieth century. Little did they know how God would answer that prayer—an answer that would impact the church worldwide. God's outpouring of His Spirit began in a small city called Sunderland and would change the lives and ministries of men such as Smith Wigglesworth, Stephen Jeffreys, and George Jeffreys. This revival would lead to the birth of Pentecostalism in Britain and awaken people to a new relationship with God. Three parts, 81 minutes total.

The Welsh Revivals

1859 & 1904

Throughout history there have been times when the light of the Gospel has shone especially bright. The revivals of 1859 and 1904 in Wales stand as powerful examples, marked by a commitment to prayer, bold preaching for repentance within the church and a community-wide spiritual awakening. During this time, churches were packed, crime rates and other social ills decreased dramatically, and nominalism and dead orthodoxy were replaced by passionate love for Jesus. This documentary traces the origins of the revival, introduces us to its leaders, and follows its lasting impact upon the world. 30 minutes.

Servant of Christ

Robert Jermain Thomas & the Korean Revivals

In 1866, Welsh missionary to China, Robert Jermain Thomas, sailed up the Taedong River dressed in traditional Korean garb and carrying Bibles. His ship was attacked and the crew was killed. Thomas came ashore carrying a white flag and a number of Bibles. When a Korean combatant approached him, Thomas reached out to hand the man a Bible just before the soldier brought a sword down upon his neck. Years later, Samuel Moffett, the first full-time missionary to Korea, met the people who had contact with Thomas, including the children of his executioner. Several of these Koreans became leaders in the budding Korean Christian movement and witnessed mighty revivals that led to the flourishing of the Gospel in that nation. 27 minutes.

Fascinating Documentaries

Malcolm Muggeridge's A Third Testament

A Third Testament is the highly praised television documentary presented by noted author and Christian apologist, Malcolm Muggeridge (1903-1990). This revealing documentary profiles six famous and unique men whose search for God forms a kind of modern testament to the reality of Christ.

Saint Augustine: the former hedonist who turned his back on prestige in order to serve Christ.

Blaise Pascal: the brilliant scientist who taught about the impossibility of life without God.

William Blake: the artist and poet who argued fervently for the life of the spirit.

Soren Kierkegaard: the renegade philosopher who taught the importance of a subjective relationship to Jesus Christ.

Leo Tolstoy: the idealistic novelist who understood both his sinfulness and God's grace.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: an uncompromising pastor martyred at the hands of the Nazi party.

This DVD contains six one-hour episodes. We have had customers request this series for years. Originally aired on PBS and BBC, this series is presented by Malcolm Muggeridge and filmed on locations in Denmark, Germany, France, Russia, and North Africa. Original musical score by award-winning composer John Mills-Cockell. 6 hours total plus extras (EST).

Undaunted

Josh McDowell has led thousands to faith in Christ, but his own journey to faith took him down a long and difficult road. In this compelling docu-drama we learn of the harsh realities of McDowell's childhood — an alcoholic father and a farm-hand's abuse — which left him filled with shame. Over the years, that shame turned to rage. In college he mocked and scorned the beliefs of Christians until they issued him a challenge: prove God doesn't exist. Obsessively, he traveled the world searching for evidence contradicting Christianity, but instead he found the truth — and a faith that led to grace and redeemed a broken man. Since that time, his ministry with Campus Crusade for Christ has allowed him to spread the gospel to millions of young people, and he's published over 70 books in the field of Christian apologetics. 68 minutes.

Briars in the Cottonpatch

10th Anniversary Edition

Briars in the Cotton Patch tells the nearly forgotten story of Koinonia Farm, a small Christian community in Southwest Georgia where whites and blacks chose to live and work together as equals despite the brutal and frightening consequences. Possibly the most daring social experiment in the South during the last century, Koinonia faced years of terror, boycotts, and intimidation in the years leading up to the tumultuous Civil Rights era. Narrated by former Atlanta Mayor and Civil Rights veteran Andrew Young, this award-winning documentary examines the remarkable events that tested the moral boundaries of a community and planted the seeds for the global work of Habitat for Humanity, The Fuller Center for Housing, and Jubilee Partners. 57 minutes.

Into My Arms

In this revealing documentary, we hear the very personal stories of five women who chose abortion. In their own words, they bravely share their struggles with remorse and the array of psychological challenges faced after their decision. Their heart-wrenching stories are explored by some of the world's leading Christian counselors who offer hope for forgiveness, healing, and restoration. It is an oft-quoted statistic: about one-quarter of all pregnancies in the United States end in abortion. What is less reported is the effect that abortion has on women who go through the procedure. Often discouraged by the secular mental health profession from discussing negative aspects of abortion, these women are left to suffer alone. Into My Arms is a healing tool for those who are experiencing post-abortion trauma. It also offers vital information for those considering abortion. In the early part of the nineteenth century, Dr. David Livingstone took the Gospel to Africa in word and deed. As a medical doctor he treated the sick, earning him the necessary trust and respect to teach the love of Christ which many Africans freely embraced. Then Livingstone turned his attention to exploration, seeing this work as much a spiritual calling as traditional missionary work. Facing danger and sickness, he forged routes deep into the African interior, sparking the imagination of many who would follow.

Coping with Grief

When Mourning Breaks

Each year in the USA, 33% of all pregnancies end either in miscarriage or through elective abortion. How can the church bring hope and healing to the individuals who have experienced such loss? While there are great differences between miscarriages and elective abortions, the emotional trauma that follows in each case is often very similar. Recognizing that elective abortion presents its own unique set of circumstances and issues, When Mourning Breaks points out certain commonalities in the aftermath of both kinds of pregnancy loss, and offers practical ways to support those who are hurting. By sensitively sharing the stories of grieving women and couples, this program encourages compassion and offers hope. 58 minutes.

Reflections for People with Cancer 🕯️

This series of meditations on Psalm 23, the Lord's Prayer, and the Beatitudes with Dr. Ken Curtis, founder and former president of Vision Video and Christian History Institute, is based on a holistic approach to coping with cancer. When he was diagnosed with advanced cancer and given little hope for survival, he pursued a combination of traditional and alternative medicine, undergirded by a strong spiritual dimension and prayer support team. While made particularly for people facing the crisis of cancer, the reflections are relevant for any health crisis, or for anyone wanting to apply these Scripture passages to their lives. These programs are co-productions of Vision Video and EO-TV Holland, UCB-TV England, and Nazareth Village.

Reflections on Psalm 23

For this video Curtis went to Israel, home of David, writer of the Psalm, to be with the shepherds, travel "through the valley of the shadow of death," and explore and enjoy the healing powers of the green pastures and still waters. Robber of the Cruel Streets: George Müller 🏴‍☠️

George Müller (1805-1898) was a German playboy who found Christ and then gave his life to serve Christ unreservedly. His mission was to rescue orphans from the wretched street life that enslaved many children in England during the time of Charles Dickens and Oliver Twist. Müller rescued, cared for, fed, and educated such children by the thousands. The costs were enormous for such a great work. Yet, amazingly, he never asked anyone for money. Instead he prayed, and his children never missed a meal. Here is his life story of how God answered prayer and supplied his needs. It is a story that raises foundational questions regarding faith and finances. Includes a 30-minute documentary featuring some of the lives that have been influenced by Müller over the years. Winner of the European Adam Award. 60 minutes + 30-minute extra feature.

Rescued

The Heart of Adoption and Caring for Orphans

According to James 1:27, "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world."

Today, there are over 160 million children worldwide who are without parents. In America there are as many as 144,000 boys and girls in foster care wanting to be adopted.

These staggering statistics should cause Christians to ask some probing questions: What would the church look like if we obeyed James 1:27? Why doesn't the church at large talk much about adoption? This film answers those questions and inspires Christians to love and care for the most vulnerable — the orphan. Featuring interviews with R.C. Sproul Jr., Beall Phillips, and many others, Rescued is an invaluable resource for every Christian who wants to live in obedience to God's will. 62 minutes plus many extras (EST).

Milltown Pride

Will Wright dreams of playing baseball in the big leagues and is ready to sacrifice anything to make it happen. But in South Carolina during the 1920s, the only path to pro baseball is through the local textile mill team. Against the wishes of his wealthy father, Will leaves his family and privileged life behind to work in the harsh conditions at Newton Mill. His natural talent on the field makes him the rising star of the mill-league team—and also earns him a dangerous rival as well as criticism from his father for his association with working class “undesirables.” Will learns that he is not so different from the mill workers as he thought. And when famous real-life evangelist Billy Sunday (played by David Burke) comes to town, Will discovers that his sheltered life only masks his real need for repentance and forgiveness. Milltown Pride is an entertaining evangelistic movie that recalls a bygone era while conveying relevant truths for today. Widescreen, 135 minutes (EST, SST).
