Dear Friends,

This May I celebrated my 57th birthday, and the film The Cross and the Switchblade had its 50th. This film is like an old friend to me. I watched the conversion scene of Nicky Cruz over and over again in my youth. How amazing that a hate-filled thug could be transformed to a man of love! It was my Dad, Ken Curtis’s, involvement in producing this story that led to the founding of Gateway Films, which led to the current ministry of Christian History Institute and Vision Video.

As a kid, I jumped at every opportunity to go to meetings with my dad. In the course of these meetings, I probably heard the story of the making of The Cross and the Switchblade a hundred times, and now you can hear my Dad tell the story as an extra feature on the 50th Anniversary Edition DVD of The Cross and the Switchblade.

After college, I began working with my dad full-time and saw The Cross and the Switchblade translated into dozens of languages and distributed all over the world. It has been a great joy for me to see the film now retransferred from the original 35mm negative to 4K with state-of-the-art equipment.

In February of 2020, I had the opportunity to meet with several other members of the Christian film community to discuss our thoughts and plans for 2020. None of us imagined that in a month we would be facing a pandemic. It has been a challenging time for all organizations, but God has continued to provide wonderful opportunities for us to minister in the midst of the challenges.

One such new opportunity was being able to launch RedeemTV.com several months earlier than planned in order to provide wholesome content at a time when so much has been canceled. Redeem TV allows viewers all over the world to access many of our titles through free streaming. If you have friends and relatives who prefer streaming, we would love for you to share Redeem TV with them! There are no fees and no advertising; instead, Redeem TV runs on a donation basis, and we are grateful for generous customers and donors like you who keep this ministry going. We plan to continue distributing DVDs as long as we are able.

Our goal is to make edifying Christian media available to all ages in the formats they use most.

The Cross and the Switchblade
50th Anniversary Release

Long before faith-based films became a regular feature of mainstream movie theaters, there was The Cross and the Switchblade. The film was made squarely within the Hollywood system, yet was set apart by the unashamedly Christian vision of its producers. It went on to become a worldwide ministry phenomenon, and it stands among the early sparks that ignited today’s growing Christian film movement.

Based on the 1963 autobiography of the same name by David Wilkerson, the film depicts the unlikely efforts of a “skinny country preacher” to bring change to the desperate lives of gang members living and dying on the mean streets of New York City. Among those whose lives were transformed was the notorious gang leader Nicky Cruz, who went on to lead a decades-long outreach to gang members and other distressed young people.

Wilkerson’s mission to tell lost and hurting young people that there was a better way through Jesus Christ blossomed into the Times Square Church and the international ministries of Teen Challenge and World Challenge, whose missions are to bring lasting, holistic change to individuals and communities. The story lives on in the book and film, but more importantly in the legacy of lives transformed by the message that no one is ever so far gone that they cannot find the way home. 105 minutes (E-ST, S, A, Pt, Ru, C, Hi, Putonghua).

Jesus

NEW!
(Sight & Sound Musical Production)

Filmed in front of a live audience, Sight & Sound’s spectacular musical stage production is now available to home viewers! Witness some of the most awe-inspiring, miraculous events as Jesus sets sail with fishermen, challenges the Pharisees, and heals the hurting. For over 40 years Sight & Sound has been bringing Bible stories to life on stage, welcoming over one million people annually to experience their original, state-of-the-art productions, featuring massive sets, special effects, and live animals. 120 minutes.

I Still Believe
NEW!

From the makers of I Can Only Imagine comes the true-life story of Christian music megastar Jeremy Camp and his remarkable journey of love and loss that proves there is always hope in the midst of tragedy and that faith tested is the only faith worth sharing. Starring K.J. Apatow, Britt Robertson, Nathan Dean Parsons, Gary Sinise, Shania Twain, and Reuben Jack Dodd. 116 minutes.

Vindication: Season One

Vindication is a faith-based crime drama that follows the investigative work of Detective Gary Travis. In each episode Det. Travis works on a new case involving new suspects and new victims. While Travis follows clues, collects evidence, and performs interviews, the audience is given a flashback view into the unfolding mystery. But questions of guilt and innocence that may seem obvious at first are often resolved in unexpected ways when the truth is revealed. Each of the ten half-hour episodes revolves around a topical issue such as adultery, revenge, greed, prejudice, or addiction. The role of Detective Gary Travis is played by Todd Terry, and the primary suspects are played by guest stars, including Emma Elle Roberts, Rachel Hendrix, Ashley Bratcher, Ben Davies, and Masey McLain. Ten episodes on two discs (E-ST).

Torchlighters: The St. Patrick Story
Far from home and at the mercy of the pirates who kidnapped him, young Patrick spends his days tending sheep and surviving wild animal attacks. That is, until he calls out to the God of his youth. After six years as a slave, Patrick hears the Holy Spirit urging him to make a daring escape. Once back home, he makes a stunning announcement: He will return to his kidnappers as a missionary! This animated episode of The Torchlighters is geared for ages 8-12. 30 minutes (E7, S, S7).
#501869D, $14.99 SALE! $12.99

St. Patrick: Pilgrimage to Peace
St. Patrick may be the most popular—yet least-known—figure in Christian history. St. Patrick: Pilgrimage to Peace uncovers the true story of this fifth-century Christian who was brought to Ireland as a slave, where he labored six long years before finally escaping. But after returning home, Patrick shocked his contemporaries by voluntarily returning to the place of his enslavement in order to bring the Gospel message to the Irish people. Discover the real St. Patrick, a man whose life continues to call us to the peace of Christ. 65 minutes (E3).

The Divine Plan
How does a plot that involves the assassination attempts of Presidents Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II, KGB scheming, and CIA intrigue become the final act to topple the Soviet Empire?
The Divine Plan dives deep into the pivotal bond between Pope John Paul II and President Ronald Reagan. Just six weeks apart in the spring of 1981, the pope and the president took bullets from would-be assassins. Surviving strikingly similar experiences, they confided to each other a shared conviction: that God had spared their lives for the purpose of defeating communism.
The Divine Plan draws on the film’s exclusive interviews with renowned historians, scholars, journalists, and church officials including Douglas Brinkley, H. W. Brands, Anne Applebaum, John O’Sullivan, Craig Shirley, George Weigel, Richard V. Allen, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, and Bishop Robert Barron. 80 minutes plus extras (E7).

A Man Called Love

Love Kaphesi is a hero of the Christian faith—but it wasn’t always that way. God answered the prayers of Love’s desperate wife when He reached down from Heaven and rescued her soul. Life would never be the same for Love. His story is one of forgiveness, redemption, and transformation. His passion for preaching the Gospel brought him to Zimbabwe. Love’s remarkable story and the steadfast perseverance of his faithful wife will inspire your heart and stay with you forever. 43 minutes (E5).

Lost Legacy Reclaimed

Lost Legacy Reclaimed is a docudrama series about the early Christian Church in North Africa, its great leaders, teachers, and martyrs. Meet these faithful Christians who set a high standard for future generations by sacrificing for Jesus Christ during intense persecution from the Roman Empire and others. The four episodes cover Victor, Perpetua, The Scillitan Martyrs, and Tertullian. Leader and participant guides can be downloaded at www.VisionVideo.com. 129 minutes total (E5).

Building for God

Dan Glusheski, a successful property investor in upstate New York, received a vision from God to build an orphanage for needy children in South America. Then he found a fellow missionary with the same vision. See how God took two total strangers living 3,750 miles apart, each following God’s call to fulfill the same vision: building the Children’s Lighthouse Orphanage, but more importantly, rebuilding children’s lives in one of the poorest countries in the Western Hemisphere. (47 minutes, E5).

Authorized

The King James Bible has profoundly influenced the church as well as the broader culture for over 400 years. The translation brilliantly brought the Scriptures to life for the people of the English-speaking world during the Elizabethan era. It is still the most widely read Bible translation in the United States. But does the archaic language of the KJV lead to confusion and misinterpretation for speakers of modern English?

Archaeology and Jesus

No place on earth has arrested the attention of adventurers and archaeologists like the Holy Land. But does what we dig up in the Jewish land resemble the stories that we read about Jesus in the Gospels? To answer this question, Archaeology and Jesus follows two paths. You’ll explore the process of archaeology with the top experts digging in Israel today. And along the way you’ll join New Testament scholar Dr. Craig Evans as he reveals groundbreaking new evidence, demonstrating that the case for the reliability of the New Testament manuscripts is stronger than ever. Narrated by John Rhys-Davies. 77 minutes (E5).

Aliens and Demons

UFO conventions may not seem like a good place for a Christian theology professor, but that’s where you can sometimes find Dr. Michael Heiser, an Old Testament scholar and author of the book, The Unseen Realm: Recovering the Supernatural Worldview of the Bible. Dr. Heiser’s interest in UFO stories has led him to ask intriguing questions such as, Are all these stories of unidentified objects in the sky and alien abductions merely the product of science fiction run amuck, or could there be something deeper hidden under the surface?

Fragments of Truth

Can we trust the Bible? Our faith is based on the New Testament, but can we really trust the Bible? Skeptics say no, arguing that the Gospel manuscripts have been doctored to push a theological agenda. Join Dr. Craig Evans as he takes this claim head-on, traveling the globe to track down the most ancient New Testament manuscripts. Along the way, he highlights groundbreaking new evidence, demonstrating that the case for the reliability of the New Testament manuscripts is stronger than ever. Narrated by John Rhys-Davies. 77 minutes (E5).
A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood

Tom Hanks portrays Mister Rogers in this timely story of kindness triumphing over cynicism, based on the true story of a real-life friendship between Fred Rogers and journalist Tom Junod. After a jaded magazine writer (Matthew Rhys) is assigned a profile of Fred Rogers, he overcomes his skepticism, learning about kindness, love, and forgiveness from America’s most beloved neighbor. PG, 109 minutes (E3†, S, S3†, P, F3†).

Romance in the Outfield

Tyler comes home from an injury that could end his career and is coaching in a high-stake game of softball against Kenzie, a feisty coach with a pretty face. They have a complicated history together, so they don’t exactly hit it off in the game opener where she pitches him some love of her own. But competitiveness and love don’t mix. Tyler must choose what’s most important between a career and love, and Kenzie must let go and give him a second chance. Starring Derek Boone, Monica-Moore-Smith, Shae Robbins, Shawn Carter, and Dan Fowlks. 90 minutes.

Patterns of Evidence

Patterns of Evidence: The Moses Controversy

Award-winning investigative filmmaker Timothy Mahoney was raised to believe the stories of the Bible were true, including its claim that Moses wrote its first books. But mainstream scholars reject this idea. They state Moses didn’t even have a writing system like Hebrew to write the first books of the Bible. Traveling throughout the Middle East to see where the patterns lead, Mahoney uncovers profound archaeological evidence for the world’s first alphabet and its connection to Moses. The film is a Bible-affirming journey into the story of the writing of the first books of the Bible. Widescreen, 118 minutes.

Also available:

Hush

A pro-life executive producer and a pro-choice director collaborated on this film about abortion and women’s health. They concluded that public health officials are covering up the truth about the link between abortion and breast cancer, putting women at risk. 101 minutes.

Patterns of Evidence: Exodus

This program combines scientific investigation with a retelling of the Exodus story to reveal an amazing pattern of evidence matching the biblical account. 119 minutes.

Unplanned

Unplanned provides an eye-opening look inside the abortion industry from a woman who was once its most passionate advocate. Abby Johnson, a clinic director and spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, has overseen countless abortions. In a shocking turn of events, Johnson abandons her deep-rooted beliefs after witnessing an abortion at 13 weeks gestation. This pivotal juncture thrusts Johnson into a period of self-exploration. Starring Ashley Bratcher, Brooks Ryan, and Robia Scott. Rated R (for portrayals of graphic, bloody, and emotional content regarding abortion). 106 minutes.

Finding Home

Lucas hosts a Christmas festival but runs out of food. Nathan receives an appealing job offer, and Elizabeth searches for a Christmas tradition that will create memories for Little Jack. Season 7, DVD 1. 84 minutes.

36-DVD Collector’s Edition Seasons 1-5

This set contains 36 DVDs covering Seasons 1 through 5. Included are all of the TV episodes, 28 movie versions, and over 12 hours of bonus features, including three Hearties Family Reunions.

To the Altar

When plans for Rita and Norman’s long-awaited wedding begin falling apart days before their nuptials, their challenges inspire changes that make their wedding more meaningful. Meanwhile, Shane convinces Oliver that the team should urgently focus on finding clues to deliver a package containing a wedding dress. 85 minutes.

Home Again

When the Postables discover an antique vase with a letter inside, they trace the package to three little girls who attempted to sell the vase 18 years ago in order to save their family farm. While the vase was an heirloom from many generations ago, the origin is suspicious. With the farm again facing financial hardship, the Postables must choose between doing what’s legal and what’s moral. 87 minutes.

The Road Less Traveled

The Postables take a road trip in an old Winnebago in order to track down a small boy who they fear may have been kidnapped. The discovery of a 1980’s era instant camera and the unusual photographs it contains, sends our team on a wild ride across Colorado using the pictures as a guide. 82 minutes.

To order, call 1-800-523-0226 8-6 Eastern time M-F and 10-5 Sat.

More Signed, Sealed, Delivered on page 57.
Sarah: Plain and Tall Trilogy

Sarah: Plain and Tall
A New England woman responds to an advertisement by a Midwestern widower asking for a bride to help him raise his two children. Starring Glenn Close and Christopher Walken. 98 minutes.

A Painted House
Based on a novel by John Grisham. During the summer when 10-year-old Luke comes of age, two very dangerous men come to work the Chandler cotton farm, and suddenly mysteries flood Luke’s world. As young Luke watches the world around him, he shelters secrets that could shatter lives—and change his family forever. 97 minutes.

The Love Letter
A young man discovers a letter written by a mysterious woman named Lizzie, who lived long ago, and feels compelled to write to her. Correspondence ensues and grows into a love so powerful not even the years can keep them apart. Starring Campbell Scott and Jennifer Jason Leigh. 98 min.

Courageous Heart of Irena Sendler
Irena Sendler was one of the most remarkable—and most unlikely—heroes of World War II, saving 2500 Jewish children during the German occupation of Poland. At great personal risk, she devised extraordinary schemes to sneak the children by Nazi guards. She was honored with a nomination for the Nobel Peace Prize in 2007. 110 minutes.

Back When We Were Grownups
A widow contemplates what her life would have been like if she had married someone else and calls her ex-boyfriend to see if she can rekindle the old flame and spice up her life. A party planner by trade, Rebecca is always cheerful and upbeat, but, even after many years, she’s still not really sure about her standing in this bizarre family. Starring Faye Dunaway, Jack Palance, Blythe Danner, Peter Fonda, and Peter Riegert. 98 minutes.

In from the Night
A late night knock at Victoria Miller’s door changes her life in a way she never could have imagined. Dirty and hungry, her teenage nephew Bobby is seeking refuge from a deeply troubled and violent home life. The timing couldn’t be more wrong for Victoria. However, it soon becomes evident that she may be Bobby’s only hope. 97 minutes.

Beyond the Blackboard
Inspired by a true story. When Stacey gets her first teaching job, she’s shocked. The children are all ages, many from broken families, thrown together in a classroom lacking essentials like desks and books. Stacey must tackle her own fears and insecurities as she works to gain the attention and respect of her young students while transforming the space into a warm environment where the children not only acquire knowledge, but also self-respect and dignity. 95 minutes.

The Piano Lesson
In 1930’s Pittsburgh, a brother comes home to claim “my half of the piano,” a family heirloom, but his sister is not wanting to part with it. Whether he is able to sell the piano to buy some property and “no longer have to work for someone else” involves the story (or lesson) that the piano has to show him. 95 minutes.

Be My Valentine
Firefighter lieutenant Dan Farrell is a widower and single dad who isn’t looking for love. But when he notices the pretty owner of a local florist shop, he asks Kate to be his date to the ball. Dan couldn’t be happier… until Kate’s ex shows up with a marriage proposal. 87 minutes.

So You Said Yes
When Annabelle, the owner of a bridal shop, falls for Sam, the son of her fierce competition, she must fend off Sam’s mother’s attempts at sabotage to be with the man she loves. Starring Kellie Martin, Bruce Boxleitner, and Chad Willett. 84 minutes.

O Pioneers
Jessica Lange heads an extraordinary cast in this breathtaking adaptation of Willa Cather’s turn-of-the-century epic saga of settlers carving a home in the wilderness and finding the dreams of a lifetime. Rated PG. 99 minutes.

Rose Hill
In the late 1800s, four young, New York City street kids save an abandoned baby girl and move to Montana to start a new life. As the girl gets older, she feels restricted by her protective brothers and decides to search for her real parents in New York. Stars Jennifer Garner. 99 minutes.

Duke
Marine Sergeant Terry Pulaski returned from Iraq with both PTSD and a disabling injury. His challenges leave him feeling like a burden to his wife and daughter. With his dog Duke in tow, he decides to leave his family behind and live in the streets. Will Duke be able to help Terry face his demons? 87 minutes.

In My Dreams
Natalie and Nick don’t know each other, but they share lots in common. They’re both frustrated in their work lives and in their love lives. After tossing coins in a fountain, they begin dreaming about each other. 110 minutes.

Shell Seekers
Given the opportunity to trade her most cherished possession for comfort and security, Penelope must take a good look at her future. With three grown children and a lifetime of memories, she realizes that something is missing. So she embarks on an incredible journey—50 years into her past—to discover the secret to happiness for her friends, her family…and herself. Starring Angela Lansbury. 102 minutes.

The Gospel of Matthew
Written for a Christian community separating from the Jewish world, Matthew’s Gospel goes to great lengths to show that, as the Messiah, Jesus is the fulfillment of prophecy. DVD includes two translations: NIV, KJV. 190 minutes.

| --- | --- |

The Gospel of Mark
This critically acclaimed, epic production—five years in the making—is a highly authentic, word-for-word retelling of the Jesus story, ending with the empty tomb. DVD includes three text translations: NIV, KJV, Reina-Valera 1960 (Spanish). 123 minutes.

The Gospel of Luke
Luke’s Gospel, more than any other, fits the category of ancient biography. Luke, as “narrator” of events, sees Jesus as the “Savior” of all people, always on the side of the needy and the deprived. DVD includes two text translations: NIV, KJV. 205 minutes.

| --- | --- |

The Gospel of John
This production of the Gospel of John is much more than a drama about the life of Christ because it uses the New Testament as its script, word for word. This DVD includes three text translations: NIV, KJV, Reina-Valera 1960 (Spanish). 161 minutes

Polycarp
Anna, a young slave girl, is rescued and adopted by Christians in 2nd century Smyrna, and befriended by their aged bishop, Polycarp. As Anna is taught by Polycarp and her new family, she struggles to reconcile her beliefs with those of the Christians. When the Romans demand that all citizens worship Caesar, Polycarp and the Christians must find courage to stand for their faith against the growing threat of persecution. Anna is forced to come to grips with the truth and choose whom she is willing to live—and die—for.

Billy Graham:
An Extraordinary Journey
Walk in the shoes of an unlikely messenger who touched the world. Rare footage and compelling interviews with family members, lifelong friends, former presidents, and prominent broadcasters tell the remarkable story of Billy Graham. The DVD includes video from the memorial service. Widescreen, 72 minutes.

The Azusa Street Story
In 1906, William J. Seymour, a one-eyed black pastor from Louisiana, son of a slave, journeyed by train from Houston to Los Angeles, only to be locked out of the church that sent for him. Seymour turned to prayer, and God’s answer was The Azusa Street Revival. Color and B&W, 54 minutes.

Boundless Salvation
This four-part documentary explores the history of The Salvation Army. Host John Cleary traces the path of this powerful movement from its origins to the present day. Learn how The Salvation Army became a force for both Gospel evangelism and social change. Meet the movement’s founders, William and Catherine Booth, and examine the innovative structures they introduced to meet the challenges of the 19th century and how it has continued into the 21st century. 191 minutes total (E6).

Outpouring of the Holy Spirit
A small group of believers earnestly prayed for Revival in England at the beginning of the twentieth century. Little did they know how God would answer that prayer—an answer that would impact the church worldwide. This revival would lead to the birth of Pentecostalism in Britain and awaken people to a new relationship with God. Three parts, 81 minutes total.

Reformation Overview
Bring the Reformation alive and introduce your class or group to key reformers and major turning points with this fast-paced curriculum series. The programs, based on Gateway Films’ dramatic movies (see below), which have won over 30 prestigious international film awards, vividly bring to life the Reformation, its colorful leaders, and history-shaping turning points. The key reformers covered are John Wycliffe, John Hus, Martin Luther, Ulrich Zwingli, John Calvin, the Anabaptists, and William Tyndale. The accompanying curriculum can be adapted to a 6, 12, or 13-session format. The DVD includes PDFs of the leader’s guide and workbook.

This Changed Everything
Christian History Institute presents a three-part documentary on the Reformation. This Changed Everything, narrated by actor David Suchet (PBS’s Poirot series), explores the roots and the fruits of the Reformation while grappling with difficult questions. Leading scholars from a broad range of perspectives tell the dramatic story of the Reformation, analyze its effects, and address vital questions about unity, truth, and the future of the church. Three hours total (E6). Extras include a PDF study guide, visual tours, additional commentary, and an 11” x 31” Reformation timeline, shown above.

A Gathering of Souls
With expert commentary from pastors, academics, Graham associates, and fellow evangelists such as Luis Palau, this documentary gives the history of the crusades from the first event in Los Angeles in 1949 to the remarkable gatherings behind the Iron Curtain. 51 minutes (E6).

Outpouring of the Holy Spirit
Nearly 100 years after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, the New England colonists had largely traded Christian ideals for the gods of material success. But then the Great Awakening swept through New England, bringing about a powerful spiritual renewal. 35 minutes (E6).

John Hus
John Hus lived 100 years before Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation, but he taught openly that salvation comes by faith in Jesus Christ and the Word of God is the final authority. Accused, imprisoned, and charged with heresy, he was condemned and burned at the stake as a heretic. 55 minutes (E6, F, Pt, S, Pt).

The Radicals
The dramatic story of the Anabaptist movement and two of its first leaders, Michael and Margaretha Sattler. As their movement grows, so does the determination of their enemies to stop them... by any means necessary. In 1527, Michael is burned at the stake and Margaretha drowned. But their movement survives and is carried on today. Parental discretion advised. 99 minutes. (E5, S, Pt).

The Great Awakening
Nearly 100 years after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, the New England colonists had largely traded Christian ideals for the gods of material success. But then the Great Awakening swept through New England, bringing about a powerful spiritual renewal. 35 minutes (E6).

Martin Luther
This dramatic black-and-white 1950’s film of Martin Luther’s life is a magnificent depiction of Luther and the forces at work in the surrounding society that resulted in his historic reforming efforts. It traces Luther’s life from a guilt-burdened monk to his eventual break with the Roman Church. 105 minutes (E6, S, Pt, G, K).
The Tabernacle

SPECIAL EDITION

Have you ever imagined being inside the Holy Tabernacle, the Old Testament place of God’s dwelling? The Tabernacle Special Edition DVD brings this holy place to life as never before. Digitally re-mastered and re-edited to include additional scenes and bonus features, this Special Edition DVD exquisitely recreates the sights and sounds of the Tabernacle with stunning clarity. 30 minutes (E1).

Herod’s Temple:

Jerusalem, rich in historical and biblical heritage, is the home of the Temple Mount, one of the world’s most recognizable and visited sacred sites. See the Temple as Jesus and his disciples did over 2,000 years ago. Imagine the scene as Jesus expelled the moneychangers from its outer court and as the veil of the temple leading to its holiest chamber was torn at the time of Christ’s crucifixion. Through the use of animation, the Temple is reconstructed and we are brought within its precincts to identify with the experience of those living in Jesus’ day. 30 minutes.

Israel: The Womb of the Kingdom of God

This documentary traces what happened to nations, empires, and individuals that stood against God’s covenant people and His plan to bring salvation to the world through them. Beginning with the Exodus from Egypt and continuing through the biblical era, we see how God preserved the chosen people in order to bring about the birth of His Son and the offer of salvation for Jews and Gentiles alike. Filmed on location in Israel, this provocative DVD is hosted by Lance Lambert, a well-known writer on the dispensationalist views on Israel and the end times. 117 minutes.

The 17-minute instructional DVD uses the animation and special effects, and also includes royalty-free Sanctuary photos, 3D Sanctuary graphics, animations suitable for the web, Sanctuary posters, royalty-free HD video clips of the Sanctuary and Jesus, and charts and calendars of the Hebrew feasts!

The Fall of Jericho

The fall of Jericho is a well-known story, fascinating children and adults alike. But what really happened there thousands of years ago? Did God work a miracle to bring down the walls of Jericho as the Bible says, or can natural causes sufficiently explain the city’s demise? The Fall of Jericho explores what really happened as Joshua and the Israelites experienced one of the Bible’s greatest military victories. Interviews with archaeologist Dr. Bryan Wood and Bible scholar Dr. Frederick Bantz shed new light on the truths found in Scripture about this miraculous event. Widescreen, 30 minutes.

From David Nunn

Galloping Through the Gospels

A fast-moving exploration of all the major sites featured in the Gospels. Starting with the Annunciation, David Nunn follows through the Gospel drama chronologically, providing fascinating and illuminating insights into the life of Jesus. 43 minutes.

Israel and Biblical Lands

Against All Odds

Israel’s rebirth and survival in the 20th century has been called a miracle. Those who were there cite their own experiences as proof. These remarkable stories of supernatural phenomena that helped to create and preserve modern Israel come to life in gripping dramatizations, eyewitness accounts, and interviews with the people who experienced these miracles of biblical proportions. Available as an abridged version (95 minutes), or mini-series, which includes the abridged version (9 hours total).

The Man of Galilee

The Sea of Galilee is shaped like a harp. It’s just 21 kilometers long and 13 kilometers at its widest. In the first century, the Galilee was a thriving agricultural region. Host Keith Garner explores the ministry of Jesus in the context of first century life, explains biblical stories, and considers the questions asked of Jesus. A PDF guide can be downloaded from our website. Six 26-minute episodes (E2).

In the Footsteps of St. Peter

Join David Suchet (of PBS’s Poirot series) as he embarks on an epic journey from Galilee to Rome in search of the Apostle Peter. In this major two-part documentary series produced for the BBC, Suchet explores how a humble fisherman, known for his stubborn and impetuous personality, became a leading figure in the early church and played a key role in keeping the movement from splintering. Traveling from Peter’s humble birthplace to Jerusalem, encounter Peter’s miraculous transformation on the day of Pentecost, and explore the question: What happened to Peter after the biblical accounts? The series follows the biblical account to reveal the miraculous life of one of the most important figures in church history. 135 minutes (E3).

The Exodus Revealed

During the Exodus, one of the most famous miracles of the Old Testament took place. More than 3,000 years have passed since Moses led the Israelites across the Red Sea and out of the bondage of Egypt. The Exodus Revealed follows the footsteps of the children of Israel on an unforgettable journey of discovery. A journey that reveals physical evidence for the Exodus, including the remains of 3,800-year-old Hebrew settlements in Egypt’s Nile Delta, Egyptian records of the Israelites’ bondage under Pharaoh, the precise route they may have followed to freedom, their crossing site on shore of the Red Sea, and the location of Mt. Sinai. 2 hours.

Vernacular History and Christian Apologetics: The Shortest Way Home: C. S. Lewis & Mere Christianity

The Shortest Way Home: C. S. Lewis & Mere Christianity is an introductory review of Lewis’s classic work on issues of faith and reason. Viewers will find honest discussion and helpful insights for the tough questions asked by believers and skeptics alike, including: How do we know right from wrong? If a good God made the world, why has it gone wrong? Why did God give us free will to choose to do good and evil? Those who journey to the heart of Lewis’s most famous apologetic work will find that the longest way round—the hard way of discipleship, of learning to truly love God and man—is the shortest and only way home. 60 minutes (EST.).

More than My Brain

The human brain performs astonishing feats. Neuroscientists attempt to understand how the brain works and find themselves confronted with the most fundamental questions about humanity: How is our personality connected to the structure of our brain? Could computers develop consciousness? Can the “I” be found in the brain? How do human beings have free will? Is consciousness possible without a brain? Are the experiences of God and transcendence merely an illusion of the neuron? This documentary takes you on an interdisciplinary journey with neuroscientists, philosophers, theologians, all asking these great questions, and points to where science exceeds its limit to become a world view. 54 minutes (E). The Divine Plan

The Divine Plan dives deep into the pivotal bond between Pope John Paul II and President Ronald Reagan. Just six weeks apart in the spring of 1981, the pope and the president took bullets from would-be assassins. Surviving strikingly similar experiences, they confided to each other a shared conviction: that God had spared their lives for the purpose of defeating communism. The Divine Plan draws on the film’s exclusive interviews with renowned historians, scholars, journalists, and church officials including Douglas Brinkley, H.W. Brands, Anne Applebaum, John O’Sullivan, Craig Shirley, George Weigel, Richard V. Allen, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, and Bishop Robert Barron. 80 minutes plus extras (E5).

“I work in the IT department of Vision Video, and one of the recent projects I helped with was the newly restored The Cross and the Switchblade. While working on it, I was impressed with the clips that I watched and thought I’d watch the movie with my 14-year-old son. As we watched the movie, I began having second thoughts of whether it was wise to have my son watch this movie with its true-to-life depiction of New York City gang. We are both glad we did, as I really wanted him to get the meaning of the film—that God’s love changes hearts! We both loved the movie. The acting was great, the music was great, the story was great. As hard as it was to watch, knowing that the movie was based on a true story reminded us of how evil sin is and how it has trapped so many people. After the movie, we watched the bios of the actors and, as an actor himself, my son enjoyed reading the short bios on the different actors. Although I wouldn’t recommend this movie for young viewers, I strongly recommend this movie for those more mature viewers who want to see a story about God’s love changing people’s hearts!”

The Mormons
From its clean-cut bicycling missionaries and imposing Salt Lake Temple to its cryptic rituals and closed-door secrecy, the Mormon Church is both intriguing and mystifying. Despite the growing appeal of Mormonism, its history is fraught with controversy. Individual and often fanciful “revelations” from God, the murder of its founder, polygamy, and other peculiar doctrines have cast suspicion upon today’s LDS Church. This study examines the group’s origins, the discrepancy between Mormon beliefs and orthodox Christian teaching, the meaning of its rituals, and the prominence of the temple. Includes PDF guide. Six parts, 99 minutes total (E”).

Christianity and Islam
How do we talk to Muslims about Christ? Which beliefs do we share in common and where do we differ? Noted theologian Dr. Timothy George teams with award-winning producer-director T. N. Mohan to answer these and other questions in this four-part collection. Muslim views are stated objectively by Muslim scholars who appear in the series. The programs set forth basic and foundational differences between Christianity and Islam and the implications for how we understand God, Christ, and the meaning of salvation. Includes a PDF study guide. Four 25-minute programs (E”).

The Challenge of Islam
This two-part study explores the beliefs of Islam and Muslim religious practice. Guiding the discussion is Sam Shamoun, an Arab-Christian. Shamoun’s presentation is centered on the goodness of God’s saving grace through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Part One: “What is Islam?” is 84 minutes, Part Two: “Defending the Christian Faith” is 75 minutes. Two discs with study guide in PDF.

GROUP STUDIES

The History of Orthodox Christianity
This ambitious project is designed to be the most detailed worldwide television presentation of the Orthodox Church, Her traditions, and Her sacramental life. The programs serve as an educational tool for the Christian Orthodox Church in addressing the needs of a world-dispersed audience, and in making Orthodoxy better understood among those who are unfamiliar with Her. Three half-hour segments.

History of Christianity
This survey course provides glimpses of some of the pivotal events in the spread of Christianity and sketches of Christian figures who have significantly affected Christian history, thereby shaping the history of the world. Host of the six-part series is Dr. Timothy George, historian and Dean of Samford University’s Beeson Divinity School. The DVD includes a leader’s guide, workbook, and scripts in PDF.

Catholicism: Five-DVD Set
In breathtaking, high-definition cinematography, the beauty and goodness of the Catholic Faith are illustrated in a rich, multi-media experience. Journey with acclaimed author, speaker, and theologian Fr. Robert Barron through 15 countries. Be illuminated by the spiritual and artistic treasures of this global religion that claims more than one billion of the earth’s people. The boxed set includes ten episodes, 50-60 minutes each (E5, S1).

The Apostles’ Creed
This series traces the origin of the Apostles’ Creed, placing it in its historical context. It examines each phrase, emphasizing its relevance and application to our lives today. These programs demonstrate the timeless power and importance of the Creed and feature an international and interdenominational cast of notable theologians, including Dr. Timothy George, Dr. N.T. Wright, Dr. Robert Mulholland, Dr. Alistair McGrath, Dr. Martin Marty, and more. This is an outstanding resource for Sunday school or small groups. A free PDF guide is available on our website. Available in 9.5-hour full-length version or 2-hour abridged version (E3).

Discovering the Bible
This award-winning four-part series is a basic introduction to the Bible for those who have little or no background. It is also a stimulating refresher for those who have long loved the Bible but never explored the incredible story of where it actually came from and how it was passed on to us. The four parts are Getting Acquainted; The Old Testament; The New Testament; and Survival, Spread, and Influence. Included on the DVD are PDFs of the leader’s guide, student worksheets, and 32-page full-color booklet.

History of Christian Worship
This series explores the diversity of Christian worship over the centuries. It features leaders from a wide cross-section of backgrounds, along with portraits of modern-day worship in various denominations. The set of six DVDs covers the Word, the Body, the Feast, the Music, the Expression, and the Embrace. Six 56-minute DVDs (E4).

Ten Commandments
This series presents many fascinating personal case studies where real-life experiences engage the Ten Commandments in urgent and practical circumstances. It shows the Ten Commandments not as repressive do’s and don’ts, but as a charter of liberty for a people released from servitude. It does so in a way that communicates uniquely to people today through firsthand contemporary experience. Hosted by composer, singer, and communicator Adrian Snell. Ten 30-minute segments.

Discovering the Bible

Jesus the Game Changer
Jesus Christ has made an indelible mark on human history, and He continues to do so through His followers. Yet many people do not realize that the values western democracies are built on originate in the life and teaching of Jesus—the equality of all, servant leadership, care for the poor and marginalized, to name just a few. In this series, host Karl Faase travels to the UK, USA, Singapore, India, and Australia, interviewing authors, academics, and modern-day game changers such as Eric Metaxas, John Ortberg, and Christine Caine. They explore how the life and teaching of Jesus changed the world and why it matters. Ten 28-minute segments on two discs (E5).

Jesus: The New Way
Tom Wright is one of today’s leading New Testament scholars. In Jesus: The New Way, Wright’s acclaimed scholarship is delivered in a winsome and understandable way, showing how Jesus is the fulfillment of Israel’s ancient hopes and humanity’s deepest dreams. You will see Jesus as you have never seen him before in the context of His Jewish and Roman world. You will find explosive new meaning in his familiar words and deeds as Wright unfolds his incomparable life and shows how it remains an unavoidable summons to our world and way of thinking. The six half-hour segments include the following PDFs: a 96-page leader’s guide with background information, discussion questions, and program scripts; a 16-page participant’s workbook; and questions and answers by Bible teacher Dr. Ted Coleman.
