WHY DO WE DO WHAT WE DO?

Why have I worked for Vision Video for 21 years? I have been blessed to have a variety of responsibilities here but one of my primary roles now is new product acquisition. This means that I have the opportunity to review potential new titles to see if we should offer them to our customers. We try very hard to carefully screen the programs we carry to ensure the content is wholesome and edifying. We are looking for programming that provides hope and encouragement and that blesses and educates the viewer. We also respect and value feedback from our customers.

When my husband and I were raising our daughters, we were concerned that they viewed character-building programs because we know that what we view and listen to has a great impact either in a positive or negative way. Now as grandparents, we have that same desire for our grandchildren. I love it when I take an order and it is a grandparent ordering good programs for their grandchildren to watch.

We operate as a family here at Vision Video, coming together once a week for devotions and time to share our prayer requests and praises. See page 41 for staff picks that offer a

The Third Day
What proof do we have that the resurrection really happened? In part one, discover the intense Jewish religious atmosphere with which Jesus grew up and began his Messianic mission.

In part two, gain new insights into the message Jesus proclaimed to his own people, the Jews, that would transform the entire world. 54 minutes (F).

The Mysterious Prophecy of Isaiah 53
Exploring the ancient prophecy of Isaiah 53 is one of the most fascinating studies one can make. Some say it reveals the story of the Bible in just a few verses. At the heart of the mystery is identifying the one called “My Servant”.

Judaism most often identifies the suffering servant as the people of Israel who have suffered throughout history. Those who believe Jesus was the Messiah of Israel see Isaiah 53 as predicting Jesus’ death, burial, and resurrection, centuries before he lived. Can both interpretations find common ground?

Hosted from Israel, this four-part DVD presents biblical scholars who discuss the clues and interpretations. Participants include Dr. Michael Rydelnik, Dr. Walter Kaiser, Dr. Michael Brown, and Dr. Darrell Bock. 150 minutes.

Jesus and His Times

Filmed on location and covering many events in His life, this documentary takes you through the fields of Nazareth as Jesus did. Hear the prayers and songs sung in His youth. Travel with Jesus to Jerusalem’s awesome Temple. Stand beside Jesus on the Mount of Olives and the Sea of Galilee. Filmed and presented by Ranaan Symphonette Orchestra and the Chur.

The Six Miracles of Calvary
Almost 2,000 years ago, extraordinary things happened at Calvary that modern science and human reasoning made impossible. A midday sky turned dark; the veil in the temple suddenly split; an earthquake shook the land; graves opened; Jesus’ graveclothes were found undisturbed; and saints rose to life and walked the streets of Jerusalem. The Six Miracles of Calvary looks historically and reflectively at these remarkable events.

In interviews with leading scholars, the meaning and purpose of each occurrence are examined, highlighting their significance to Christ’s suffering and relevance to the challenges faced by those who follow Him. 65 minutes.

Cries from the Cross
No other act, event, or movement in history has had more impact than the sacrifice of God’s Son. Obedient to His Father’s will, Jesus hung from a wooden cross with thorns pressing into His flesh. He uttered seven cries as He suffered for us all. These seven cries come to us in a program that helps us understand what the cross meant to Christ and what the cross should mean to us. God is always willing to forgive because His judgment on sin was satisfied by Christ’s death on the cross. 120 minutes.

Lewis to take us on his journey from hard-boiled atheist to “the most reluctant convert in all England.” Discover how the “Hound of Heaven” pursued Lewis relentlessly until he finally “gave in” and became the most influential Christian writer of the 20th century. The Shortest Way Home
C.S. Lewis & Mere Christianity
C.S. Lewis’s classic work on issues of faith and reason. Viewers will find honest discussion and helpful insights for the tough questions asked by believers and skeptics alike, including: How do we know right from wrong? If a good God made the world, why has it gone wrong? Why did God give us free will to choose to do good and evil? Those who journey to the heart of Lewis’s most famous apologetic work will find that the longest way round—the hard way of discipleship, of learning to truly love God and man—is the shortest and only way home.

The Mormons

From its clean-cut bicycling missionaries and imposing Salt Lake Temple to its cryptic rituals and closed-door secrecy, the Mormon Church is both intriguing and mystifying. Despite the growing appeal of Mormonism, its history is fraught with controversy. Individual and often fanciful “revelations” from God, the murder of its founder, polygamy, and other peculiar doctrines have cast suspicion upon today’s LDS Church. Includes PDF guide. Six parts, 99 minutes total (E3).

The Great Deceiver

Popular culture may paint the devil as a cartoon character in a red jumpsuit, but that depiction makes light of the reality of Satan’s sinister and diabolical nature. His approach is straightforward: to separate every man, woman, and child from God using any means necessary. The Great Deceiver reveals the devil’s tactics and shows how God ultimately has the victory. DVD includes a 49-minute documentary and four-part study with a PDF Study guide (E3).
