American Underdog

This is the inspirational, true story of Kurt Warner, who went from stacking shelves at a supermarket to becoming a two-time NFL MVP, Super Bowl champion, and Hall of Fame quarterback. The film centers on Warner’s unique story and years of challenges and setbacks that could have derailed his aspirations to become an NFL player. This uplifting story demonstrates that anything is possible when you have faith, family, and determination. Starring Zachary Levi, Anna Paquin, and Dennis Quaid. Rated PG. 108 minutes.

God’s Not Dead 4

The God’s Not Dead franchise continues in God’s Not Dead 4: We the People as Reverend Dave (David A. R. White) is called to defend a group of Christian homeschooling families. He finds himself taken aback by the interference of the government, and believing that their right to educate their own children is a freedom worth fighting for. Reverend Dave is called to Washington D.C. to testify in a landmark congressional hearing that will determine the future of religious freedom in our country for years to come. Also starring William Forsythe, Isaiah Washington, and Antonio Sabato Jr. Widescreen, rated PG. 110 minutes (E ST).

Courageous Legacy

As law enforcement officers, they are confident and focused, standing up to the worst the streets can offer. Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge they’re ill prepared to tackle: fatherhood. When tragedy strikes home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, their fears, their faith, and their fathering. Celebrating ten years of impact on families and fathers, this updated version of the film includes an enhanced look and sound along with impact stories, new scenes, and a new bonus ending you don’t want to miss! 129 minutes.

Saving Sophia

British salesman Sophia Kirk’s sister Sophie goes missing in Iraq. Posing as an investigative journalist, Kirk hires a troubled ex-Army Ranger, Bryce Daniels, to help him find her. As they trek through the desolate, war-torn wilderness battling terrorists and their own dark secrets, they realize that their quest is not only to save Sophie, but also to seek salvation themselves. Formerly To Be a Soldier. Viewer discretion advised for violence. 127 minutes (E ST).

When We Last Spoke

In 1967, two sisters are abandoned by their mother at their grandparents’ farm in the town of Fireside. Stunned by their sudden arrival, tender-hearted Walt and champion fiddler Ruby graciously stand in for the missing parents and create one blue-ribbon recipe for a loving family. Richly packed with plenty of quirky characters and hilarious escapades, When We Last Spoke is a timeless movie that digs deep to things that matter most—family, friends, love, and forgiveness. Starring Cloris Leachman, Corbin Bernsen, Melissa Gilbert, Chandler Head, and Darby Camp. 108 minutes.

Counter Column

Anthony Mendoza’s (Chris Gonzales) life of drug dealing spirals out of control. In an attempt to escape, he joins the Army, only to clash with Chris Wright (Nathan-Andrew Hight), a hard-headed recruit determined to share his faith despite ridicule and physical intimidation. When Mendoza makes Wright’s life miserable, he braces himself for retaliation that never comes. While the Army is transforming him on the outside, Mendoza continues to resist any change on the inside. However, Wright’s response to personal tragedy may be the first step in turning Mendoza around. 98 minutes.

The Most Reluctant Convert

The Most Reluctant Convert features award-winning actor Max McLean as the older C. S. Lewis and Nicholas Ralph—breakout star of Masterpiece’s “All Creatures Great and Small”—as young Lewis. Beautifully filmed in and around Oxford, this engaging biopic follows the creator of The Chronicles of Narnia from the tragic death of his mother when he was just nine years old, through his strained relationship with his father, to the nightmare of the trenches of World War I, to Oxford University, where friends challenge his unbelief. The Most Reluctant Convert brings to life the spiritual evolution of one of the 20th century’s sharpest minds. 74 minutes.

Ends of the Earth

Imagine flying over rugged, breathtaking terrain only to land on an airstrip hand-dug by local villagers on a remote mountain deep in the jungle. It sounds like an adventure movie, but it’s real life for the pilots of Mission Aviation Fellowship. This faith-based documentary from Change Media and Mission Aviation Fellowship brings viewers face-to-face with hard-to-reach villages, awe-inspiring panoramas, and incredible people who are willing to risk it all for the sake of sharing Christ’s love. The documentary weaves together the true stories of MAF pilots—past and present—who strive along with other missionaries, churches, and organizations to take the gospel to the most isolated and inaccessible places on earth. 84 min. (E ST).
Schoolhouse Rocked: The Homeschool Revolution is a feature-length documentary intended to encourage and equip homeschool families to start strong and finish well. It follows host Yvette Hampton as she travels the country with her family talking with education experts, curriculum developers, college and university faculty and administrators, and homeschooling families at every stage in the process, from kindergarten to college graduation and beyond. As viewers follow Yvette on this journey and share in her challenges and victories as a homeschool mom, they will gather the necessary resources and encouragement to homeschool their own childre. Featuring Heidi St. John, Ken Ham, Sam Sorbo, Dr. Carol M. Swain, Israel Wayne, and Sarah Mackenzie. 97 min. (E1).

Whose Children Are They? This groundbreaking and powerfully persuasive documentary features brave teachers, empowered parents, and front-line experts who pull back the curtain about what is truly happening in our public schools today. This film will be the starting point for a full cultural conversation about the need to return to the original intent of education, not indoctrination. Whose Children Are They? will inform and equip parents, teachers, grandparents, and concerned citizens to partner together for the innocence and well-being of our children. 119 minutes (E2).

In His Image

In His Image is a critical and urgent message designed to equip the church to answer culturally controversial questions about gender and sexuality from a biblical perspective. Every church in America is filled with hurting people asking these tough questions: Can you be gay and a Christian? What if someone genuinely feels trapped in the wrong body? Did God make me this way? Is change even possible? This documentary presents much-needed truth with compassion and clarity through powerful personal testimonies, careful Bible teaching, and scientific evidence. 104 minutes.

Show Me the Father

Show Me the Father Everyone has a unique father story. Whether positive or painful, it’s always personal and can deeply affect the core of our identity and direction of our lives. Kendrick Brothers’ Show Me the Father is the first documentary film from the creators of War Room, Overcomer, Fireproof, and Courageous. Featuring a variety of amazing, true stories, this captivating movie takes audiences of all ages on an inspiring and emotional cinematic journey. Comenius

Comenius As the world-famous Dutch artist Rembrandt paints his portrait, John Amos Comenius tells him about his extraordinary life. Comenius was a brilliant 17th-century Czech scholar, educator, philosopher, and theologian. He is considered the father of modern universal education. He championed equal educational opportunities for the poor and for women, and his ideas were adopted in many European countries. Despite his international reputation, Comenius was persecuted in his own homeland because of his Protestant faith, forcing him into life-long exile. Today he is considered a hero of the Czech Republic. His tragic, yet triumphant, story is brought to life in this moving and visually rich production. 96 minutes (E3).

Both 7 Churches for $34.99, #97225D.

The Eyewitness Bible Series is a fascinating behind-the-scenes study of the people and stories that are bedrock to the Christian faith, ancient stories that still echo with deep significance for today. These stories are told through dramatic eyewitness testimonies.

Paul’s Letters
There is treasure hidden in Paul’s thirteen letters, but the path to find it is not obvious. His thirteen generally accepted letters are arranged in the New Testament in two blocks: the nine written to churches, then the four written to individuals, 3 hours and 22 min. total (EST).

Easter
The Easter Series is a collection of eight episodes from other Eyewitness series. These episodes are selected to be watched on each day of Holy Week. 2 hours total (EST).
1. Palm Sunday shows the Triumphant Entry of Jesus into Jerusalem.
2. In Fig Monday’s episode, Lazarus tells his story of being resurrected.
3. Holy Tuesday’s episode shows Andrew’s story.
4. Spy Wednesday is an episode told by Judas.
5. Maundy Thursday’s episode is an interpretation of the story of the vine and branches that Jesus taught on Thursday night before his crucifixion.
6. Good Friday’s episode is told by two of the main characters of the trial of Jesus: Peter and Pilate.
7. Black Saturday’s episode is told by Joseph of Arimathea, who was involved in Jesus’s death and burial.
8. Easter Sunday’s episode is told by Mary Magdalene, the first person to see the resurrected Jesus.

Three Gospels
This volume covers the three Gospels of Mathew, Mark, and John. The multiple Gospel accounts help us see the brilliance of the Spirit in meeting the needs of the original audiences as well as audiences over the following two millennia. 3 hours and 4 min. total (EST).

The Mormons

From its clean-cut bicycling missionaries and imposing Salt Lake Temple to its cryptic rituals and closed-door secrecy, the Mormon Church is both intriguing and mystifying. Despite the growing appeal of Mormonism, its history is fraught with controversy. Individual and often fanciful “revelations” from God, the murder of its founder, polygamy, and other peculiar doctrines have cast suspicion upon today’s LDS Church. This study examines the group’s origins, the discrepancy between Mormon beliefs and orthodox Christian teaching, the meaning of its rituals, and the prominence of the temple. Includes PDF guide. Six parts, 99 minutes total (E$)^{23}$.

Must the Sun Set on the West?
These lectures, recorded at the University of Minnesota, fill a vital need for anyone who wants to understand the root cause of the West’s decline and what must be done to reverse it. With charm and passion, Dr. Vishal Mangalwadi—an Indian-born intellectual, social reformer, and author of 13 books—argues that the Bible is the soul of Western Civilization, and its rejection and replacement have led to a gradual but ever-intensifying decline. But far from being a prophet of doom, Dr. Mangalwadi gives hope for Western renewal based on a return to biblical values. Eleven segments, 47-66 minutes each, on three discs.

Whatever Happened to the Human Race?
This series is narrated by the late Dr. Francis Schaeffer and former Surgeon General Dr. C. Everett Koop. Practices once considered unthinkable are now acceptable—abortion, infanticide, and euthanasia. This series examines the sanctity of life as a social, moral, and spiritual issue which Christians must not ignore. 150 minutes.

The Most Reluctant Convert
The Most Reluctant Convert features award-winning actor Max McLean as the older C. S. Lewis and Nicholas Ralph—of Masterpiece’s “All Creatures Great and Small”—as young Lewis. Beautifully filmed in and around Oxford, this engaging biopic follows the creator of The Chronicles of Narnia from the tragic death of his mother when he was just nine years old, through his strained relationship with his father, to the nightmare of the trenches of World War I, to Oxford University, where friends challenge his unbelief. The Most Reluctant Convert brings to life the spiritual evolution of one of the 20th century’s sharpest minds. 74 minutes (EST, SST, FST, GST, KST, CST).

The Science-Fiction Makers
This feature documentary examines three integral writers who wrote within the Christian Science Fiction genre: Victor Rosseau, C. S. Lewis and Madeleine L’Engle. Through interviews, reenactments, archival materials, and excerpts from their works, we explore a genre that has been counterculture since its beginning. The writers faced harsh criticism, dismissal, and even hostility from all sides for putting the faith and imagination into their writing. But the genre survived and continues to influence popular culture today. 90 minutes (EST).

The Fantasy Makers
J. R. R. Tolkien, C. S. Lewis, and George MacDonald were the pioneers of the fantasy genre. All three were deeply committed Christians, and their spiritual convictions permeate their writing. The Fantasy Makers examines their spiritual influences and the lasting impact of their works. Featuring Rowan Williams, Kristin Jeffrey Johnson, Malcolm Guite, Allister McGrath, and Michael Ward. 88 minutes (EST).

The Shortest Way Home: C. S. Lewis & Mere Christianity
This introductory review of Lewis’s classic work on issues of faith and reason presents honest discussion and helpful insights for the tough questions asked by believers and skeptics alike. 60 minutes (EST).

Through a Lens Darkly
Here are stories of people touched by a significant loss, who share their thoughts on C. S. Lewis’s A Grief Observed. This program will help viewers cope with grief while identifying with others who are struggling, 56 minutes (EST).

It’s Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

As mayors of neighboring New Hampshire towns, longtime rivals Liam and Sarah are determined to best each other on their way to leading their hamlets to victory in the annual statewide “Christmas Spirit Competition.” When both towns unexpectedly advance to the contest’s final round, the mayors decide their best hope lies in working with, rather than against, each other. As they collaborate on a celebration showing what Christmas means to their communities, they discover their own holiday miracle: love. Starring Eric Mabius, Tricia Helfer, and Aliza Vellani. 83 minutes.

Silver Bells

It’s the Christmas season, but Christy (Tate Donovan) hasn’t felt much joy since his wife died. Meanwhile, Catherine (Anne Heche) is finding her work personally challenging since losing her husband to cancer. Although their paths cross often, Catherine and Christy remain emotionally isolated until a crisis draws them together and they rediscover faith, hope, and love. 101 minutes.

Candles on Bay Street

A single mom returns to her hometown after a lengthy absence, posing a potential threat to the marriage of her old high school flame. But a curious thing happens: the three become friends. Despite the initial awkwardness, old wounds are mended and new friendships are formed. 98 minutes.

One Christmas Eve

Anne Heche stars as a recently divorced mom who wants her two kids’ first Christmas without dad to be perfect. An entertaining but unfortunate series of Christmas Eve mishaps ensures that won’t happen—unless perfect means the family has its most memorable and heartwarming Christmas ever. 110 minutes.

Christmas with Holly

Maggie Conway has HAD it with big-city living and moves to a small town in Washington, finally realizing her dream of opening a toy store. There she meets Mark Nagle, the proprietor of the local coffee shop. It’s not quite love at first sight, but almost! Mark’s number one priority, though, is his six-year-old niece, Holly, whose single mom has recently passed away and left him as her guardian. He’s moved in with his two older brothers to help him raise Holly. They prove to be charmingly inept. Maggie and her toy store prove to be the magical key to opening Holly’s heart after her loss. 91 minutes.

Best Christmas Party Ever

Young party planner Jennie learns that her boss, Petra, will be retiring after Christmas and hopes she will be left in charge of Petra’s Parties, New York’s premiere event planning service. But her hopes fade when Petra’s charming and handsome nephew, Nick, arrives on the scene and Petra announces that he will take over the business. Starring Torrey DeVitto, Steve Lund, and Linda Thorson. 90 minutes.

Christmas in Conway

To surprise his ailing wife for Christmas, Duncan wants to put a ferris wheel in their backyard until his nosy neighbor intervenes to try to stop him. Christmas in Conway is a testament to love, filled with scenes of hilarity. Starring Andy Garcia, Mandy Moore, and Mary Louise Parker. 110 minutes.

Mrs. Miracle

Mrs. Miracle tells the story of Seth Webster (James Van Der Beek) and his two sons, who learn about faith, family, and forgiveness when “Mrs. Miracle” (Doris Roberts) proves to be more than just a nanny and transforms their lives. 92 minutes.

November Christmas

Vanessa shares a children’s book she wrote, inspired by her memories as a very sick child. Her family had struggled to deal with her illness, but through the support of the small town and a caring neighbor, her father’s wish for her was realized—halloween in August and a November Christmas. 94 minutes.

Mrs. Miracle

A Bramble House Christmas

While settling his father’s estate, Finn Conrad becomes suspicious as to why his dad left $50,000 to a nurse he knew for less than two months before he passed away. He goes undercover to investigate the nurse at a bed and breakfast where she and her son are staying. 85 minutes.

A Christmas Visitor

Christmas is approaching for the Boyajian family, but father George, mother Carol, and their daughter Jean have lost the desire to celebrate since the death of their son on Christmas Eve. But this year, George is determined to bring his family back together. Starring William Devane, Meredith Baxter, Dean McDermott, Reagan Pasternak, and Aaron Ashmore. 100 minutes.

A Royal Christmas

When Leo proposes to Emily, he confesses that he is actually Prince Leopold, Duke of Winterset and heir to the throne. When Leo’s mother, Queen Isadora, finds out that he has proposed to an American commoner without her blessing, she becomes outraged and does everything in her power to drive the couple apart. But will she succeed? Starring Lacey Chabert, Stephen Hagan, and Jane Seymour. 87 minutes.

Hallmark Holiday Collection Double Feature

Finding Father Christmas: Christmas for Miranda is a painful reminder of the family she never had. Her mother died when she was young, never revealing the identity of her father. But, three days before Christmas, she unexpectedly receives a clue as to his whereabouts that takes her to a beautiful New England town where she meets a young man who helps with her search. 86 minutes.

Engaging Father Christmas: It’s Christmas and Miranda heads back to Carlton Heath, where she will experience the joyful traditions she missed as a child. Last Christmas she fell in love with a local man who helped her as she searched for her father. At his widow’s request, she agreed to keep what she discovered a secret. This Christmas, she hopes the warm welcome she received from the family will soon turn cold when Miranda receives an anonymous text from someone who threatens to expose her identity. 90 minutes.
