Why do we do what we do?

As a father of four children under the age of 10, I believe I have been asked the question “Why” more than any human ever has or ever should. “Why can’t we have a pet Monkey?” “Why did God make vegetables?” “Why can’t we have ice cream for dinner?” I attempt to encourage myself with the mantra “This is only a phase...they will grow out of it.”

The truth is it is important for us all to understand the “Why” behind why we do what we do. This year we as a staff at Vision Video took some time to refocus on the “Why” and found that by refocusing on the “Why” we are able to serve the Lord with a fresh passion, new energy, and greater conviction. After 13 years at Vision Video, I believe the “Why” to be: Vision Video endeavors to strengthen the Kingdom of God by producing and distributing quality Christian films that engage, encourage, edify, entertain, and evangelize our world.

We would like to ask you, our customers, to join us in some of the Kingdom-building endeavors close to our hearts by taking a close look at pg. 40-41 in the catalog. The programs listed on this page are connected to a Kingdom-building non-profit ministry. Every purchase made from those pages will result in an extra donation made to the identified ministry. We are proud to have a strong heritage and look forward to seeing how God will continue to build His Kingdom while we each do our part.

Proud to partner together to strengthen His Kingdom,

Tortured for Christ - Coming November 1, 2018

Be inspired by love and forgiveness that conquered Communist prisons. Pastor Richard Wurmbrand suffered 14 years of imprisonment and brutal torture while his wife, Sabina, was treated as a slave in a labor camp. Their only “crimes” were their faith and witness for Jesus Christ. Through it all, they loved their enemies and sought to win their torturers for Christ. Filmed entirely on location in Romania, including in the very prison where Richard endured torture and solitary confinement, this is the cinematic retelling of one of the most powerfully inspiring and historically significant testimonies of all time. Presented by The Voice of the Martyrs, this new movie is a cinematic retelling of the testimony of VOM founder Pastor Richard Wurmbrand, as written in his international bestseller Tortured for Christ. This movie was produced to honor the 50th anniversary of the book’s 1967 release. 77 minutes. (EST)

God’s Not Dead 3: A Light in the Darkness

A church destroyed. A congregation silenced. A relationship shattered. Yet even in life’s darkest valleys, a small flame can light the way toward healing and hope. After a deadly fire rips through St. James Church, Hadleigh University leaders use the tragedy to push the congregation off campus, forcing the church to defend its rights and bringing together estranged brothers for a reunion that opens old wounds and forces them to address the issues that pulled them apart. Starring David A.R. White, Shane Harper, and Ted McGinley. Includes bonus features. Rated PG-13. 104 minutes (E®, S®).

I Can Only Imagine

It’s the song that brings ultimate hope to so many. The song was written in mere minutes but those lyrics were crafted over a lifetime. Although he found faith at a young age, life wasn’t easy for Bart Millard. He leaned into an active imagination and his love of music as escapes from a troubled home life. As he grew older, Bart turned to football in hopes of somehow connecting with his abusive father. But a career-ending injury—combined with the vision of a teacher—set Bart on a musical pathway. Chasing a dream while running from broken relationships, Bart hit the road in an old, decrepit tour bus with his new band MercyMe. I Can Only Imagine beautifully illustrates that no one is ever too far from God’s love. Rated PG. 110 minutes.

Let There Be Light
As seen in theaters. After losing his young son to cancer, Dr. Sol Harkens has dedicated his life to the cause of atheism. As a best-selling author and a celebrity debater, he has managed to parlay his attacks on Christianity into a very lucrative business. Sol’s self-destructive habits eventually catch up to him, and a serious car crash leaves him clinically dead for four minutes before he is finally resuscitated by some heroic first responders. It’s a miracle that he’s still alive, but what really changes Sol’s outlook on life is what happens during those four minutes. Rated PG-13. 100 minutes.

Navajo Code Talkers of World War II

This documentary provides viewers with highly personal insights from a group of Native American war heroes regarding their service on behalf of the United States and the Navajo Nation. The secret code these marines developed based on the unwritten Navajo language was never broken, giving American troops an upper hand in many battles that ultimately led to Japan’s surrender in 1945. Filmed on location in Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Saipan, Guam, and Tinian with World War II veterans and their families, the documentary reveals the stories of these heroes as they travel on their journey of remembrance. 68 minutes (EST).

Operation Dynamo:

Dunkirk Evacuations

Winston Churchill had just become Prime Minister when Germany launched its attack westward—and the nightmare of a second world war became a reality. The British Expeditionary force had already been deployed when advancing Nazi forces threatened to surround them. Their best chance of evading defeat would be a strategic withdrawal to coastal Dunkirk. The risks of an evacuation were high and time was short as a national call to prayer sounded across Great Britain. All new reenactment scenes dramatically bring to life the emotion of the famous Dunkirk evacuation, which was code named “Operation Dynamo.” 38 minutes (EST).

More than My Brain

The human brain performs astonishing feats. Neuro-scientists attempt to understand how the brain works and find themselves confronted with the most fundamental questions about humanity: how is our personality connected to the structure of our brain? Could computers develop consciousness? Can the “I” be found in the brain? Do human beings have free will? Is consciousness possible without a brain? Are the experiences of God or transcendence merely an illusion? This documentary takes you on journey with Neuro-scientists, philosophers, theologians, all asking these great questions, and points to where science exceeds its limit to become a worldview. 54 minutes (EST).

Decoration Day
A debt of honor becomes a badge to freedom in this life-affirming winner of two Golden Globe® Awards—Best Drama and Best Actor for James Garner. Judge Albert Sidney has retired from the bench and pretty much from life when he is asked to help a boyhood friend, Gee Penniwell. Gee has refused the government’s belated attempt to award him the Medal of Honor. Delving deeper, the judge is confronted with his friend’s bitterness about World War II and the silent war he and Gee, a black man, have maintained for 30 years. As the two men confront their pasts and their prejudices, they learn the meaning of courage, friendship, and forgiveness. 110 minutes.

Heart of Man

Once we begin to know who God is (and who we are), we have something to invite the world into. Freedom from performance. Freedom from managing our behavior so we appear acceptable to God. Freedom from our addictions, compulsive behaviors, secrecy, and double lives. This film tears the veil of confusion over the church’s current identity crisis and enables it to invite the rest of the world to the banquet God is throwing all of us. All of that is interwoven with a production-rich prodigal son story shot in Hawaii. 76 minutes

Malcolm Muggeridge's:
A Third Testament

A Third Testament is a documentary presented by Christian apologist, Malcolm Muggeridge. This documentary profiles six men whose search for God forms a kind of modern testament to the reality of Christ: Saint Augustine, the former hedonist who turned to Christ; Blaise Pascal, the brilliant scientist who taught about the impossibility of life without God; William Blake, the artist who argued fervently for the life of the spirit; Soren Kierkegaard, the renegade philosopher who taught the importance of a relationship to Jesus Christ; Leo Tolstoy, the idealistic novelist who understood both his sinfulness and God’s grace; and Dietrich Bonhoeffer, an uncompromising pastor martyred by the Nazi party. 6 hours (EST).

The Amish and the Reformation

Beginning with Luther’s 95 Theses, the program describes the advent of the Reformation, the establishment of a reformed state sponsored church in Switzerland, and the formation of the breakaway Anabaptist Movement. Host, Joseph Graber, a former member of the Amish Church, traces his family origins back to the Reformation era and gives unique insights into how Amish beliefs have changed over the centuries. 55 minutes (EST).

A Return to Grace: Luther’s Life and Legacy

Martin Luther triggered a seismic upheaval that rocked the western world in the 1500s—with an impact that continues to reverberate to this day. The great drama of Martin Luther’s life comes alive in this vivid portrayal of the penniless monk’s quest for truth—a quest that would reshape the church, and the world. Perhaps the most faithful movie about Luther’s life ever made, the film does not shy away from the deep theological questions—and answers—that mark Luther as one of the most influential people of the last thousand years. 105 minutes (EST).

This Changed Everything

Christian History Institute presents a three-part documentary on the Reformation. This Changed Everything, narrated by actor David Suchet (PBS’s Poirot series), explores the roots and the fruits of the Reformation while grappling with difficult questions about the legacy of division. Leading scholars from a broad range of perspectives tell the dramatic story of the Reformation, analyze its effects, and address vital questions about unity, truth, and the future of the church. Three hours total (EST). Extras include a comprehensive PDF study guide, visual tours, and additional expert commentary on many topics.

Calvin, Zwingli, & Br. Klaus: Shapers of the Faith

John Calvin was an intellectual giant of the Reformation, Ulrich Zwingli was a humble priest who brought reform to the church and died in battle, and brother Klaus was a mystic who left everything to seek God in the wilderness. In comparing and contrasting these three figures, we see how the practice of the faith changed in Switzerland in the late Middle Ages. These changes would impact the entire world. 60 minutes (EST).

John Hus: A Journey of No Return

Fourteenth-century Czech priest and scholar John Hus is considered one of the first Protestant reformers. His interpretation of Scripture and his bold stand against church corruption would strongly influence Martin Luther a century later. Hus spent his last days as a prisoner in Constance on charges of heresy. During his imprisonment, Hus formed an unusual friendship with one of his jailers, Robert Talio. Hus’s demonstration of faith in the face of death won Talio over to his cause.. Dubbed in English, 51 minutes (EST).

Fascinating Documentaries

The Amish: A People of Preservation
The Amish continue to intrigue their technology-current neighbors by keeping alive ways and beliefs that many modern Americans regard as irretrievably lost to progress. In this award-winning documentary, Mennonite historian John L. Ruth takes us into the Amish mindset. Appreciative neighbors, a well-known physician, an artist, and respected scholar John A. Hostetler, author of Amish Society, provide insightful commentary on the survival of an alternative to the kind of world we have made. 54 minutes.

If God Is God, Why Do Bad Things Happen?
Cruelty, injustice, and pain are facts of everyday life—some call it evil. No matter how it is encountered, the response is most often the same. Why me? Where is God? Author and speaker Os Guinness offers hope and encouragement to help you explore these questions. 45 minutes.

Christianity and Islam
How do we talk to Muslims about Christ? Which beliefs do we share in common and where do we differ? Noted theologian Dr. Timothy George teams with award winning producer-director T. N. Mohan to answer these and other questions in this four-part collection. Muslim views are stated objectively by Muslim scholars who appear in the series. The programs set forth basic and foundational differences between Christianity and Islam and the implications for how we understand God, Christ, and the meaning of salvation. Includes a PDF study guide. Four 25-minute programs (EST).

J.R.R. Tolkien: Master of the Rings
This exciting film features stunning 3D animations of Middle Earth, a host of illustrations by the Brothers Hildebrandt, rare archival footage of the author himself, and in-depth analysis by leading Tolkien scholars from around the world. 80 minutes.

The Life of George Washington Carver
George Washington Carver, the inventor of peanut butter, was one of the world’s foremost experts in horticulture. In fact, he was so brilliant that Henry Ford and Thomas Edison tried to hire him! See how he grew up in segregated America and met the challenges of poverty, frailty, sickness, and the KKK as a blessing and opportunity to learn. 60 minutes.

Warriors of Honor
The Revolutionary War united America. Less than one hundred years later a bloody Civil War divided it. This documentary places the war in its historical and cultural context. It guides the viewer through the causes and the major battles of the Civil War while providing insight into the lives of two stalwart men who fought. 80 minutes.

Facing Darkness
In the spring of 2014, the Ebola pandemic was sweeping across West Africa. One organization stepped up with people and resources to provide compassion and care in the name of Jesus. But when the deadly virus infected its own medical personnel, including Dr. Kent Brantly, the epic crisis truly hit home for Samaritan’s Purse and its leader Franklin Graham. Facing Darkness tells an incredible true story of faith, determination, and prayer...and of how God performed a miracle! 98 minutes.

After hours, “Audrey,” our automated order taker, is standing by to serve you.
Quakers
Members of the Society of Friends (Quakers) played pivotal roles in some of the most transformative events of the last four centuries. With God On Our Side
With God On Our Side takes a hard look at the theology and politics of Christian Zionism, which teaches that because the Jews are God’s chosen people, Israeli government policies should not be questioned, even when these policies are unjust. 82 minutes.

Patrick
He’s been shrouded in myth for centuries, but who is the real Saint Patrick of Ireland? This DVD explores the true story behind the legends and inspects the life of a real man who most likely lived in the fifth century. This docu-drama features enlightening interviews with noted scholars and captivating reenactments of Patrick’s life. 45 minutes.

Boundless Salvation
This four-part documentary explores the history of The Salvation Army. Host John Cleary traces the path of this powerful movement from its origins to the present day. Learn how The Salvation Army became a force for both gospel evangelism and social change. Meet the movement’s founders, William and Catherine Booth, and examine the innovative structures they introduced to meet the challenges of the 19th century and how it has continued into the 21st century. 191 minutes total (EST).

A Gathering of Souls
During his long and distinguished ministry, Billy Graham has preached the Gospel to well over 200 million people worldwide. The massive evangelistic gatherings that took place in sports arenas, concert halls, and outdoor venues became known as the Billy Graham Crusades. With expert commentary, this documentary gives the history of the crusades from the first event in Los Angeles in 1949 to the groundbreaking 1957 New York City crusade and on to the remarkable gatherings behind the Iron Curtain and in the Far East. 51 minutes (EST).

The Azusa Street Story
In 1906, William Seymour, a black pastor from Louisiana, traveled from Houston to Los Angeles only to be locked out of the white church that sent for him. Seymour turned to prayer, and God’s answer was The Azusa Street Revival. Color and B&W, 54 minutes (extras).

Joseph: Carpenter of Steel
Hosted by Rev. Gregory Seltz, this documentary offers a look at the foster-father of Jesus. Joseph’s unwavering trust in God and his obedience in the face of ridicule and disruption give us a unique example of biblical manhood. DVD includes a 47-minute documentary version and a four-part study version. (EST, SST).

In the Footsteps of St. Peter
Join David Suchet (of PBS’s Poirot series) as he embarks on an epic journey from Galilee to Rome in search of the Apostle Peter. In this major two-part documentary series produced for the BBC, Suchet explores how a humble fisherman, known for his stubborn and impetuous personality, became a leading figure in the early church and played a key role in keeping the movement from splintering. Travel from Peter’s humble birthplace to Jerusalem, encounter Peter’s miraculous transformation on the day of Pentecost, and explore the question: What happened to Peter after the biblical accounts? 135 minutes (EST).

Also available:
In the Footsteps of St. Paul, 108 minutes

Polycarp
Anna, a young slave girl, is rescued and adopted by Christians in 2nd century Smyrna, and befriended by their aged bishop, Polycarp. As Anna is taught by Polycarp and her new family, she struggles to reconcile her beliefs with those of the Christians. When the Romans demand that all citizens worship Caesar, Polycarp and the Christians must find courage to stand for their faith against the growing threat of persecution. Anna is forced to come to grips with the truth and choose whom she is willing to live—and die—for.

Exploring Ephesus
Walk in the steps of the apostles along ancient Roman streets and pass through marble gates into the wonderfully excavated city of Ephesus whose extensive ruins resound with millenia of history. Take an excursion by boat to the Isle of Patmos where Christ revealed his apocalyptic vision of the end of days. Exploring Ephesus combines the fast-paced adventure with relevant spiritual insights. 60 minutes (EST).

Peter and Paul
This Emmy Award-winning production, starring Anthony Hopkins and Robert Foxworth, captures the vitality, intensity, and humanity of two who were entrusted by Christ to carry the Gospel into all the world. Based on the Scriptures by and about Peter and Paul, this video shows how they were driven by a heavenly vision for a different kind of world. They paid a horrendous price for their devotion, but their ministries transcended the cruelty of their enemies to become important pillars of the Christian Church. 194 minutes (S, EST, actors’ bios).

From Christ to Constantine: The Trial and Testimony of the Early Church
The first three centuries were decisive for Christianity. The very existence of the church was threatened by powerful opponents who wanted to destroy it. The DVD includes six half-hour programs and PDFs of the leader’s guide, student worksheets, and scripts.

Highlights from the six programs:
1. Foundations How did it all begin?
2. Spread The Word was for all. How did they bring their message to the world?
3. Accusations Believers were subject to many charges. How did they answer them?
4. Persecutions The mightiest empire in history outlawed and persecuted the believers.
5. Testimony A close-up look at heroes who would pay with their lives.
6. Transition Constantine granted the church legality and favor. Was this a blessing?

The Fantasy Makers: Tolkien, Lewis, and MacDonald
J.R.R. Tolkien, C.S. Lewis, and George MacDonald were the pioneers of the fantasy genre and their impact is unmistakable. Their works—exploring Middle-earth, Narnia, and other tales of redemption, sacrifice, and the battle of good and evil—have become best-selling books and blockbuster movies. Contemporary fantasy writers such as J.K. Rowling grew up inspired by their works. All three were deeply committed Christians, and their spiritual convictions permeate their writing. They engaged and challenged from the pulpit of imagination, speaking truth through fantasy.

The Fantasy Makers examines the spiritual influences of these fantasy pioneers and the lasting impact their works have on our present-day culture. Featuring Rowan Williams, Kristin Jeffrey Johnson, Malcolm Guite, Allister McGrath, and Michael Ward. 88 minutes (EST).

The Shortest Way Home
C.S. Lewis & Mere Christianity

The Shortest Way Home: C.S. Lewis & Mere Christianity is an introductory review to Lewis’s classic work on issues of faith and reason. Viewers will find honest discussion and helpful insights for the tough questions asked by believers and skeptics alike, including: How do we know right from wrong? If a good God made the world, why has it gone wrong? Why did God give us free will to choose to do good and evil? Those who journey to the heart of Lewis’s most famous apologetic work will find that the longest way round—the hard way of discipleship, of learning to truly love God and man—is the shortest and only way home. 60 minutes (EST).

Through a Lens Darkly
Grief, Loss and C.S. Lewis

“No one ever told me that grief felt so like fear.”
C.S. Lewis - A Grief Observed

Loss comes in many forms: The grief over the death of a loved one, the devastation of a physical or mental impairment, the pain of divorce or separation, or the distress of job loss and foreclosure. The physical and emotional responses to grief can be as heart-wrenching as the loss itself. So where does a person turn for answers and encouragement in a time of despair, doubt or fear? 56 minutes (EST).

I Can Only Imagine
It’s the song that brings ultimate hope to so many. The song was written in mere minutes but those lyrics were crafted over a lifetime. Although he found faith at a young age, life wasn’t easy for Bart Millard. He leaned into an active imagination and his love of music as escapes from a troubled home life. As he grew older, Bart turned to football in hopes of somehow connecting with his abusive father. But a career-ending injury—combined with the vision of a teacher—set Bart on a musical pathway. Chasing a dream while running from broken relationships, Bart hit the road in an old, decrepit tour bus with his new band MercyMe. I Can Only Imagine beautifully illustrates that no one is ever too far from God’s love. Rated PG. Approx. 110 minutes.
